The Sacred Journey through Empowerment

LCenteur

All we work is all we do.

All we are is all we be.

All we move is all we say and when we Shall and shall again, we be, we will, and We light on and then.

Up and down the scale, up again and
With the rays, lord of light and Light of source, the tones and the colors
Like a landscape painting from the Glorious kingdom of the unlimited will Fill and feed, flow and drop, gently
Sourcing us and give the almighty
Will of the power all.

Like a rain, on the winds, whiter snow of One being law, we will know the ascendant
Slopes and let them pour down the lights
Of the synthesis and on and on, these Slopes of brightness with the one light we
On and on, share and bless, you will Access because we have, you will succeed
As we did.

Being the seekers of a state of non-being, we
And you, as one and as all, we will Meet and share, we will fully praise and
So, and on, and more, again and then,

We, all in one with the wheel of the twelve
Rays, singing the notes the angels support,
All and each, we and you, we shall and Will know the steps, find the blueprint
And from now to ever, renew the Network of the energies waiting for you,
Known by us, to be the ultimate path, at Least, you are gently asked to urge in your Embodiment.

Happening to bear,
Listening to joy, forget and be what you are
When becoming all in one.
From birth to earth and from night to Light, the journey shall bring turns and Turns like gusts of light clearing the entire Tour in your bodies, from flesh and bones
To heart, to higher self like a whirling Point, accent of the universe, in its Centered and unlocated circle whose Periphery goes on and up to the Sacred banks of the river one life
Flowing down the slopes to mother earth.
From time to time, we and you, loving and Caring on both sides of the veil, we Adjust and balance, through each other, the Universal laws of the perfect lay lines,
Drawing and assuming the wordless
Memory of the sacred state where love is
The power, as light is, giving you the keys of Tenderness which compassion, as a means,

Becomes, on earth, the state of mastery we Use as a pacifier.

Because of the endless route leading to the Purest, from the earthly bonds of human Quest to the ascended slopes of Divine mastery, you, remaining human Density can, with us, assume and remain
What individuals are while silently being,
Knowing, living and overcoming what Every one is in God's oneness.

Armored of flesh, the power of light,
Transcending its frontiers, can on and for
The human world, give you
Empowerment to work and be in one, in All situations, what we assess of the Plan to Provide and so, you and us, linked by the Whole, break it in and out, let us be the Travelers of time sharing through space the Colors of the rays like sending and Receiving colors and tones to formulate and Express the more and the best for the Human service of the celestial Plan for this Planet earth.

When the next has been received and Spoken, because you are able to live it, it
Is on and through experience that the Work, being done, using your feet and your Hands, can settle down the magic of the Law through the dispensed laws you Applied.

The ascendant journey, serene and

Beautiful, is the most inconvenient one
In the interferences brought by the mental
On the physical plane.
No one escapes, and the remaining
Adjustments you have to keep are Sometimes disturbed by others, so Loud that the listening of the silence is,
From us and your higher self as one, the Only opportunity to continue what began
For you and us so many lives ago.
Pursuing the service is pursuing the journey,
Enlightened, sacred, you are the pillars of those Works and hierarchically related; you can Improve both ways of going up and down on
The scale the twelve rays offer.
On the sacred journey of knowledge, use the Colors and the tones like we use you, with Discrimination and love knowing the faith and Letting them in the will and power of our Mighty One, the most Radiant One.
Bow to him and face his multiple rays like an Open lane discarding the dusts of the coming in Disturbing winds.

We and you are the same, your acceptance to be Reborn and serve has been decided
And agreed by the higher councils depending on Your capacities to be used as instruments for The divine, but the power must be channeled and Only your bodies up to the twelfth allow us to Send and you to receive.

Being one in the most Radiant One, you and Us, so many times ... lives ... have been One and working together, but the Ascending journey through empowerment is Always the same and each time different,
Regarding the state of global evolution and
The world conditions that humanity creates.
The point of no return is known today as another Crisis, and because this is the end of the Twentieth century, had to be made a period of Increasing, coming back for those of us
Entitled to start and do what the Plan Needed.

I, Master El Morya, with my Brothers
Kut-Humi, Serapis Bey, Saint-Germain,
Jesus Sananda, and some others, as one and Only spirit, are in charge and delegated.
Working with you, being on earth, in the World but not of the world, we assume and Provide the parts of the Plan, the responses to The needs of this thirsty, starving world.
In the name and power and will of the Most Radiant One, I, El Morya, with my Brothers and Sisters, and you, linked and Related to each other by and on the Ascending slopes of ray lights; we and you
Work together and this is why, today,
The teaching makes another step on earth, this Step is the first one formulating the Sacred journey through empowerment.
It is, through the lost memory of your

Belonging, the ascent of your bodies in the Light, through the light by the light.
This is the way of Love blessing the action and Allowing the right next step of evolution of Humanity as beings.
We are now transmitting, using a new Means already employed with our Sister LC in French for all the books we worked on.
It is oneness expressing its bipolarity and I call it «identification of consciousness».
This is the highest means of transmission possible,
And as you know the mediator is the High fidelity, the most evolved means
Actually embodied. One of us, as you are all,
But the ability to mediate this way
Requires a high degree of evolution and the Degree of Initiation corresponding to that Level is the sixth at least.
Now working as one, LC, my Sister and I Remain two for the necessity of the Externalization of the Hierarchy.
This book concerns all the masters now on this Planet earth and the tone of the note
Comes straight from the higher levels where
The higher self is no more a self.
Here the named self, being saturated by Light and Love, being no more a «self», no
More a soul, bathes in the powerfulness of
The prime energy you only know when no
One is there anymore differentiated
From Oneness.

As you know the soul is the vehicle of the Spiritual past of being. This vehicle learns and Evolves to a certain point and then its Existence is useful no more. When this happens,
The soul, like the ego, is the symbol of a death,
Spiritual (the ego was psychological death),
Which becomes the rebirth into the dimension of The monad.

I will not enter into this path of initiation because You can find it in the works of A. A. Bailey.
Here the purpose is different and we are Exploring this dimension, after the soul,
Bursting out its experiences and knowledge,
Giving place to the monad that we also call
The non-self. It is the higher center of evolution
For the human being and from there is the Journey through empowerment that each of You, embodied masters, have to start and Go through.

Sacred journey whence the soul is absent.
Dead you are because, reborn into one life, the Monad now is the center and does not need
Any peripheral vehicle to ascend into light.

The sacred journey uses the twelve rays.
The sacred journey is non-individual.
The sacred journey is colorful and soundless.
But is also melodic, rhythmic and light. Here becomes The pulse of the heart and the electromagnetic attraction of a clean and smooth mental body, attracting the lower forms of the thoughts no more, but dispatching the clarity of its crystal like surface into the world.

The sacred journey is the reversing part of evolution, When, from the overcome vehicle of the soul, one begins to improve the empowerment of the higher planes, where we remain and work, servers of the light and actors of the non-self being, like a molecule of light giving body and expression to the most Radiant One and opening the doors for humanity, while opening the doors, different and alike, to the higher selves in quest of the infinity of evolution.

This is not the sacred journey of the soul,
Not any more.

This sacred journey begins where the vehicle of the soul is no longer needed by those who have overcome the past and are now immersed into light, a nowhere in which this sacred path begins to be walked legless, to be embraced armless.

To all of you,
To each and one,
Because of the most Radiant One and in Him,

This sacred journey through Empowerment is only to begin after The soul's journey of which karma, the Law, is the register.

Open, you are.

Will is your impersonal sword and arrow
Because it is now divine.

So power must become your impersonal

Means because it only is divine.

Your center between will and power is on the first ray
And, from there onwards, will depend on the needs to be Empowered by the eleven rays. And the center, non-moving, shall move, and shall circle and straighten any of the other rays to help and serve, love and lighten, what your work may need and what the Plan will provide.

The sacred journey is no longer with any personal Evolution, not even individual; after all, it starts with Oneness and includes the individual as part of the step of the most Radiant One on earth.

The process is reversed and you are now totally immersed

As well as specific in qualities and activities. Competence is poured into the universal reservoir and the laws of the universe are the only means not to be used any longer, but to be lived as well as possible, on earth, by those who, starting the sacred journey are entering the multi-dimensional without the spiritual vehicle of the soul needed up to the fourth initiation.

The opening of the heart gives room to space and time, Here is no more than the universal present, which means infinity is the next step and the first of this sacred journey through and into empowerment.

First you go through.

Then you go into.

From the first to the later, experience comes down to earth on the physical plane, into the physical body.

Giving birth, on earth, to the most Radiant One is the Purpose of the sacred journey.

Being the ones you are in all and becoming all you remain

The ones. Like we are.

Only the memory has been lost, because memory does not Go beyond the soul. Memories belong to the ego first, and then to the soul, which can recall and gather to integrate them, the fragments of itself lost through its evolving route.

Now we are memory-less and only light can be recognized.

Discovering non being into the light is questing love and Life. The One Life, to be lived and experienced as a gift, we are through the embodied masters of the world.

So is the sacred journey.

And so are we going to deliver it, with its traps and Opening, its blindness and its clarity, again, as always in the previous evolution of the personality and of the soul.

This is the third degree of the hierarchy; this is the sixth degree of initiation; this journey starts here and goes beyond the sixth degree.

If you are reading this, you are ready to start or you are Already on this journey and don't know much about it. This is for you, embodied masters working with the Celestial Hierarchy for the celestial Plan for humanity and for evolution.

You are the ones to be empowered, your walk is already Sacred because you are following the footprints of Sananda, our Brother of Light and Love.

And following you will discover all you know
And have known again from ever to ever and Then, through the whistling waves of the Turning points you become and live from Now forth.

Again and again, from the leaves to their Fall, from the steps on the sand to the Light under your feet you will, like us,
Accept and follow the future of the World to be given and shown.

Is there anything there?

Is there anything left that your heart
Beating the human rhythm can neglect or Exclude from the divine stream whose Flow you are part of?

Nothing, nothing at all because up to the Key of the universal notes, the light will now
Be your clothes and your feet anchoring it on Earth will be the sweet shadows of the Luminescent golden ball you will carry and Hold to each person's path you cross.

And in this divine hologram of another
Dimensional space, the rays and the Colored notes synthesize the all and the One to be part of the Plan and the words of Its expressions.

Through the inside and out of the opposites
You are joining and leaving behind all the Memories of the nights that happened before,
Not even clinging to the slightest idea of What was before.

Because nothing that has not been done
Can be redone and, likewise, nothing that is.

Being done cannot find its source in the Primal undone of the Word of the most Radiant One.

Being and non-being is the respiration here,
On this dimension of the sixth to the seven.

You can put on the chakras and the colors
To find out this point where the higher
Needs the vehicle of the soul no more.

From there and to the monad, beyond its Formless light, we are now travelling the Light as particles of its radiant flows.

Brothers and sisters of here and messengers to
There, from on and on the energy gathers
All that is needed to accomplish and Give the works being run from the Central Sun.

Higher and higher, along the slopes and Down the purity of the mind through the Accurate processes of the mental, we and
You, up and down, go and share, live
And praise what, in oneness, we have to Enterprise.

The winds and the bright sunrays shining

Are the friends of the currents up and down
To the planet earth, while in their gusts and Its glows divine beings, busy on their ways,
Bring the light and share the path.

Nothing here can be thought or done, only Energies are at work and on the flame and
In it, are our hearts beating the time of Human evolution that you care about,
That we support, you and us as one,
Unseparated and divided by the planes
Where we work, by the planes we Experience.

After the soul's journey, then comes the Sacred journey of empowerment, daring not
And allowed by the most Radiant One's Light, your steps are still shy because the Mental is a process you need for the perfection of The Enlightened mind's expressions.

Here we are, you and us, on the unbelievable
Beginning of the path of reversed light when Love is to be and no longer to give.

Because being is the state and love the Power, Light is unveiled and Colors are helping. The center is held and the Peripheries are known because we and
You no more are in the ocean of Light whose waves cannot be drops.
From the drops to the ocean of light, here
Is the sacred journey where each to All must travel alone in total
Oneness of the Almighty.

Awareness is the doors opening downward
Where lights are still blown by the Shadows of their form.

No more symbols here, the only reality is the Only lay line dropping from the source and Plunging downward when the sixth is Behind and the seventh in touch.

From now on, because of the reality,
Unspeakable and still invisible from the Lower planes, the metaphors and the Symbols are the only way to bring and Suggest the laws governing the higher
Initiation.

Because initiation and its inner processes
Are all the means and the coming light to Be or not what we all are.

On the resting pad of the meditative
Souls, each renounces and chooses at the Same time, but from now and on the Sacred journey one being all can Enlighten the planet and the hearts
Much more than any other initiates on the Lower planes.

Knowing the self is a realization like a
Step in the desert of one, when the Monad is glimpsed and joined, then
One and no self left behind transforms
The way into a sacred journey where the Soul no longer is the traveler.

The travel here is the traveler and the Speed of light is the vehicle.

The evolution after individual becomes Oneness in Light and action of Love.
Light and Love being the same pole of all the Energies which colors synthesize to Enlighten the world under the clothes of
The most Radiant One, like the flame of
The candle lit by the angels when the Souls all in one still work on their Paths.

On the lawns of your greens where Hearts pulse the world, your steps
Carve the unformed lights of the stairs
Descending Light.

Be the ones and tell, be the one and be Told, you are then all and alike, your Light and radiance are no longer
Different from the most Radiant One.
Through the flames of your beings you
Can now see through; the image is vacant
Through the radiant presence.

When the rays become arrows,
When they beam on the world, places will Be told and guidelines created so the Light anchoring shall attend and trace
The colors of their qualities to be Followed and empowered whether they Will know or not know.

Is there any time, is there any way, is there
Any more, is there any lost, is there any
You in what you are above?

These are the questions to be answered

Before the sacred journey of your Empowerment.

Where you are from is the source and you
Are what we are, like the colorful rays of
The most Radiant One, being the direction of Light and the openness of the hearts, still and No more full being, through you like you
Are as radiant as we are.

On the wheel and on the rays, on the Colors and on the light, moving like a Universal tide, we are the waves and on
The waves the fluidity is Waterless.

Not drooping anymore but flowing,
Not addicted anymore to any spiritual forces,
We remain like you, the less and the Most, understanding and compassionate,
Without judgment or effort, we all are the One light on its way up to the Radiant,
Down its way to earth and humanity.

No longer a priority - ego trip -
No more a way of life - disciple trip -
No more a duty - ego - disciple trip -
But a state of being without any Questions and with answers and Creativity to and for needs.

Don't ask and don't say,
Just be and enlighten.

Beyond the soul, mastery will become Empowerment.

And so you know and remain in one

Because you are all and no one can Be misunderstood by you or even missed.
The sacred journey through empowerment is Your bright journey of non-self Unfolding into the one light and love of The most Radiant One.

Now the universal laws given through Key words becomes a reality whose state is Yours, as it is ours.
Because, brothers and sisters in the Universal language of light, love has become Wordless, only the state is left to be given
As a way of life, able to question and Answer all individuals in their quests, on Their paths.

The melody of light is the purest sound in The universe.
We are, as you are, the composing notes of This song coming from the
Most Radiant One.

Here the fire is left behind because the mind
And its mental processes have been purified.
All the water of the emotional plane has Evaporated and, as green
Showers up blue and down
Yellow, the golden source is available as Well as the white synthesis.

Power runs up on the right and down on the Left, fixing the rules of the universal laws and Transcending them to the divine law
Which now is the portal of awareness.
But no one is the witness, the All is the Bright consciousness with the double appearance of Full being ready to plunge into Non-being from where and whence will be Created what is needed, what is Right.

But, without divine will, power is lost,
Here, it is not human, it is divine and
From the higher self and from the soul;
Before, it has to be understood, not by The mind anymore but by the capacity to Create which is far beyond the Ability to transmit.

The mediator is the one up there, on the Divine plane of the Radiant One, up to The seventh on earth and from the twelfth, he and she in one androgynous
Being, stands and moves on the scale,
Up and down, like a flag in the Light, like a banner, Mine, on earth.

No one is less, no one is more, but initiation is
The door to be opened and depending on your Own dharma, you and we will serve as
We do, in one according to what was decided with the

Useful differences demanded
Now by the Plan.

Initiation can be understood; before the door,
One has to pass, on the threshold one is Unaware, behind the door, it disappears,
Leading the steps through awareness to the Next and on and on.

Reading the way, knowing the path is the Privilege of the master reborn on earth
And yet to proceed to the new way of your Old acceptance.

Everything human, here, has become almost Inhuman but the vision of it is only Divine in the ultimate expression one can, on Earth, imagine.

Here and being on earth too as you are,
Use us, please, to clean every morning your Chakras, with the colors and the Presence of each Chohan of the so named Qualities, from red to gold, climb to the Top and stay aligned and calm, and as Human beings, centered and serene, give Testimony to the higher planes.
Light is your friend and One Life your Space, timeless are days and nights
And on and on work and balance the Earthly energies to be used.

Clear is the gaze and profound the vision
When the stars must come,
When the seeds must fall.
Round and round the cycles,
Straight and strong the incoming flows.
And the light and the seeds
Through the stars know the rains that the Plan throughout will engage and forecast.
Gliding on the inner layers are the thoughtless Ideas, like rainbows on their slopes; like Readings in between, waiting to Get down or lying in radiance, they will Become in your hearts and with us for Them all the pieces of the puzzle coming forth
To be worked.

As needs, on and on, change profiles and Go on, you and us as the ones bringing Light on his and her own are two parts of The game that Light and Love are by the Little will, personal and blind, that People on earth impose to humanity as if to Break the laws.

And close to them by the same laws, we and
You live and pray, the curtain to be left on The stage of their lives, opens the theater of the World to the lights of their dreams to Become.

One mission from here where we stand,
To there where you are, unseparated and One in the play to provide, is to Give consciousness the sparks at their pitch,

No need to walk the step, simply touching
Its veil will push darkness aside, our steps
With yours are alike and from Henceforth to infinity each one in humanity
Feels the blueprint of initiation through the Work we, together, set on the curves of its Roads.

Lower or higher are no longer important,
We and you explore them all, dimensions
Are our space as is yours also the Physical plane.

From one to the other and us to you and Reverse, we all are one and one for them on The radiance of the most loving one.

On the ladder of Jacob, on the veils of Isis,
Through the storms and the winds,
With the wrong or right slips, one after another Awareness will unveil the Mother whose Love and light is sought.

There are no other paths and all ways are Welcome, when the gate has been seen,
Right away, one has to get in touch with the Universal laws we and you know and live as A must for individuals to do.

On your journey of mastery to empowerment,
Being the ones, you are the wholeness
Dispensed on earth for so many unforeseeable Missions, you had better be ready and Available.

The earthly conditions are sometimes so difficult
And the soreness of your physical body so tough
That help is needed from us.

Do not try to do and manage with all, the Right moments are known by us all and you will Have to make up with cycles of action and Creativity, both are the same but through their Expressions they need different opportunities to Be given their best. Running them all you
Are the ones to be responsible and cautious.
Guidance here is on both sides, higher and on
The physical plane, where unexpected incidents
May occur.

The Plan had to be delayed, as you know,
And so many reasons are the causes of what Did not or could not be done that here, on this Sacred journey through empowerment,
We will only talk about what is.

You are on the roads and turns and you
Handle with care.

Knowing the time is not only a guidance,
It can be yours. This is the path where,
From guidance to cooperation, your Creativity must be applied.

This is the journey where, you and we are Empowered. You are the only one able to Stand by us and work as we do.

Mastery is a long journey you have Already accomplished and now, from the higher Guidance we give before the recapitulation of

Your inner potential of initiation, to the Creative one that is yours because it has Been your work already, at the same time,
On the inner and physical plane, now, this Journey is, for the embodied Masters of the Celestial Hierarchy, the expression of the So called externalization of the Hierarchy.

Being born and masters, you have the capacity
To be in contact but also, and this is the most Important, you are the creative co-operators,
The co-creators who, from the physical plane
Organize and initiate projects and New changes in order to facilitate
The Plan we together know.

This journey of empowerment is for the Masters of the externalization of the Hierarchy,
The recognizing of their own power under
The empowerment of the divine will.
When will is no more personal each one
Can transcend to divine will.
The difference with you, embodied masters,
Is that your will has always been divine,
From the beginning of this incarnation but,
Distorted by the human education and
By all the cloudy reasons of logic and Environment, you did not know yet the Divine belonging from whence you came or Let us simply say that you forgot.

But you forgot on purpose, because doing so,
You were and are, in total humility,
Women and men on earth, ready to share and Carry the burden of each brother and Sister, making it lighter by supporting
All humanity as such.

So many parts of the Plan, so many Competencies needed. You are the hands and Legs under higher guidance,
But you, embodied Masters returned to Birth, you are the open hearts of Individuals, their light and the love
Embodied also in the very cells of your Bodies.

The point here is to make a difference
Between guidance and mastery.
This is the point of this journey and this is
The power of creativity.
Sometimes we have to work from this side,
Being on the inner planes, with inflated egos,
They know but cannot help themselves to Be what they are not yet.
Please understand, under my banner, as I speak to you, Me, your Brother El Morya,
That you all will soon reach
Mastery and need guidance.
But some of our Brothers and Sisters,
Already among you, are the embodied
Masters of the Hierarchy, they are not

The guided ones only but the protected ones
Who know and work without a word
About their conscious state of mastery and Awareness.

Recognize them and their energies, the Guided ones who are not strong
Egos in pain ... of themselves.

These embodied Masters of the Externalization
Are the door and the gate for the Group initiation now occurring.
They are the Personalities directly linked
To the monad and to Shamballa, the Step leading to Sirius.

The consciousness of Shamballa Correspond to the Sixth degree of Initiation as given by the last part of the Teachings through A. A. Bailey.
We all are the temples of the initiation,
Some are on earth,
Some, like us, are anywhere, and on Earth too.

Initiation and integration of the Energies cannot be avoided by all of those Wanting to accomplish mastery in this Life.

It is possible, for everyone.
Know the laws, but before you can Fully live them, the process remains Intellectual.

Ask for the light and break through the Ego to find love towards the Opening of the heart.
Because, otherwise, there is a danger,
All the dark forces work with the Failures of the ego.
Selfishness, egotism, pride and
All the destroying effects they have on the bodies.
So, reach to the self and plunge into light
But do not misunderstand the meaning of Initiation and its necessity.

The ego is the worst enemy,
It is the greedy one and with it, none of Us can clearly communicate or work.
We use masters, of the first steps on mastery,
Still under ego, they know it, but if They lay on the guidance, only, sooner or Later, they will deviate if they do not Take seriously the advertisement and Go on feeding, time to time, their egos.

So, distinguish between the elements of Mastery and guidance. The first ones are a Potential to be achieved in this life, the Other one is a state where ego gives place to an Integrated personality ready for Alignment and for service.
No more personal will, all the strong Attributes of the ego have been surrendered to

The Divine and do not forget, for this Accomplishment, a strong ego is the first step.

You cannot be a warrior if you have no
Strength. But this one has to be turned To the Divine and only then can it be a Means for service and the Plan for humanity.

Courage is needed here.

Be the one and be the self,
Be the soul and be the monad
Up to the sacred banks of Shamballa,
Beyond the Ashrams of the Masters and Beyond some higher inner planes and then,
Being masters of the unlimited you will Be able to open and open the doors of the Evil, under my banner and in the One radiance, we will work together
Because from and on both sides, the Light is the same as love, only their Expressions are the multitude of the Most Radiant One's manifestation.

Going on and breaking through the Mental plane will be painful.
The unconscious there is so hard in its Construction of thoughts that your body
Will suffer.
The work on this plane is the most difficult,
The most wordless to be explained,

The most chaotic to be digested.
Because you will have to clarify this plane
And to cleanse its whole surface
Through vortexes of darkness and knots
Each one bears, you are also the transformers of
The shadows into light.
You are the alchemists and you all are,
Because the sixth Initiation is the pass to
This ability as is the third.
The difference is that between the third and Fourth you learn how to cleanse; it is Learning and then, with the open heart, on
The fourth degree, you cannot exclude Anything, you love and this state in Christ is inclusive, so you accept and Transform all that is brought by currents
And incarnation to you and just Transform it.
Then you are a transformer and no Matter the darkness, you are able to Welcome it and love it to the point that you
Can transform it.

Is it not beautiful?
Transforming is not special work
A special person has to do.
No, transforming is the ability that Initiation gives to you, you reach it and Then you work with it.
Incarnation is as natural to the master of the sixth
Degree as walking or breathing is to individuals

But it is not as easy or charming. But it is and The beauty of it is not understandable before
One attains this state.

This is the state of unconditional love.

When you have the opportunity to meet a Transformer, then you face the Very mediator between the higher spiritual Planes and the physical plane, the one Incarnating light and love through his or Her very cells.

The perfect balance between yin and yang,
The one who needs no guidance to
Be the light, to live that state of love
Where nothing and no one can be excluded.
When you has the opportunity to meet a Transformer then one is in the Presence of the incarnated expression of the
Most Radiant One.

So let this flow expand and let its tides
Be, immerse yourself and let happen in Your heart the radiance and the glow,
These are divine and love here is not a
Word but the universe entering your world.

The transformer is the target and the Arrow, within or without for him, her,
Makes no difference at all and you easily, even
On your way to mastery, may miss the divine
Challenge of such a meeting that happens to

Be an encounter, a meaningful encounter.

On the hilltops and down the valleys,
In all the cities requiring your work, and
Not of the world, you are, embodied Masters of the externalization of the Hierarchy, the rails of light that your Feet on earth trace and fulfill.

On the silver rocks of the higher planes
Lights, from the roots of divine and the Flowing of his, her source, fall on the Earth and enter each one the premises of Awareness seeding the souls.

Starlight of reality implanted in the Grounds of the seventh golden age you
Are already in, beam on the hearts and Cross in and out the opening possibilities
Of the Christ level.

Initiation occurs, but it depends on each
To attain the consciousness where the Portal of awareness transcending
Our limits, again and again, leads To the next.

Doors are open but the portal appears
Only when the space between has Been consciously traversed.

And from then to now, and from one to the future
The layers of the self must Be envisioned and unveiled up to the Golden gate where non-self is the state in the Presence of the most Radiant One.

From layer to layer and henceforth,
The angels will assist and Provide help to each who wants and Will accomplish in incarnation the Mastery of the soul.
And while this travel, this journey
Up to the light,
Our Brothers and Sisters, you, embodied
Masters, sent to accelerate the Plan, you
Are journeying the Light down from the Very presence in which you stand.
From Oneness to all and to each
To all, individuals are the grassroots
You seed and feed in their hearts.

Nobody knows what it is like to Be, to remain and stay, to enterprise and Assume what mastery implies within the Limitations where the masters are, being in and out
At the same time.
Here compassion has itself no limit
Here the acceptance of bounds comes from The open heart because, here and Only here, is the testimony of mastery on The physical plane.

The athanor at the base has been Enflaming one and up the centers to the Seventh, the burning fire of the illimitable
Universal consciousness has Gone up and up white, the Physical body as a temple is now

Ascended in its own very flame and
From then to now on, the Sparks of awareness lie in the golden
Soul to be expressed.

This journey here is the beginning of Mastery; it comes and is reached only
When what Jung called individuation is Fulfilled and from that state which Happens to be the first hierarchical
Initiation, the real journey through Empowerment begins.

Here then the soul is on the stage
Where the most Radiant One's expressions
Play his, her game, like a Leela,
Beautiful and meaningful, dancing on
The colors and notes of the twelve rays
Happening to be his, her qualities and Skills to be reached and learned.

The paradoxical ways of telling the Truth are parts of the beauty of the Divine meanings dancing from Synthesis and on up to oneness.

In between one may see the Signs entering the pure mind like Arrows of light bringing within the Most powerful colors of the divine
Power and of the ultimate will.

The journey is the third.
The first is the ego.

The second is the soul.

The third is the monad and from her, here,
The service is one with incarnation whose Purpose is entirely divine and being Human too is not any more demanding
But giving.

On the banks of the rivers,
On the border of the sea sand,
On the edge of one self, are Carved and written, the way stations of The landing soul, the landscapes of the Enlightened monad drawing on the ground
Of one's flesh and blood the magnificence of Her, his global vision of which everyone are the Parts.

The ego here is not even a memory,
The present is timeless and only Unlimited limitations are the traces of Colored light sweeping aside and Including, at the same time, the beaming
Shadows of the dark forces into the Inescapable Light of the
Most Radiant One.

Learning out is impossible, when the Monad has passed by, the only way to Be down on earth is to be up in her, him.
This point of returning is a revolving Way of the One Life coming through and Forth. The master, down on earth, is a

Center designing the peripheries of the Circumferences where the Most Radiant One is the center and Where there are no centers.

From green to blue the energy, burst
Into white as the coronal Chakra,
Being connected with the global sound of Male and female energies, can, at least,
Be connected to the straight line of Wisdom like a double pointed Arrow leading up and down the Energies of the twelfth coming rays.

The journey here is an endless
Process which, starting in the energies of Jesus Sananda, evolving to Shamballa Consciousness, goes forth to the Overbanking beach of Sirius and the Interplanetary leading process, which Accesses and assumes the evolution of Planets over the manifested universe, as Within the planet earth and its Sacralization you and I are Responsible for.

The respiration of the universe within the Seventh planes and above is a Multidimensional breathing.
In the air
By Love and hate

With power and your power as a
Magnetic concomitant,
Through life and death, being in phase
With thought and non-thought now still,
Up to creation and destruction, and Over being and non-being, this Global breathing, once transcended and Integrated, gives bodies the Capacity to reach and distribute the Basis lighting impulse of the Most Radiant One in the non-finality of
The wholeness as a process to overcome,
At least, the limitations of the Seven bodies aligned and efficient.

Initiation has passed above to Non-initiation, not as an absence, but like
The butterfly's powdered colors of an Open light, without memory and out of time.
Where space, as a multidimensional
Process begins the stairs to build
Forward to the most Radiant One.

The beauty and the light are one,
No more form or mind remains,
Every process is now reversed from up to Down, but the master here is the Physical portal for the divine expressions of Him, her as the most Radiant One.

The hands of the angels, like a

Sound barrier, are tightening as soundless Bells, holding the messages for those Who can hear.

This melody is available from the Ego to the soul too, it is heard
From soul to monad where Then no difference at all is any more Lived between the notes and the Colorful rays of the twelfth qualities
Within the
Most Radiant One.

Being the one you remain the all and Between each other we travel the Light and action love into work as the One power of the divine will.

Are you sending or are you receiving?
Are you working or are you loving?
These questions have to be answered and Only the monad can make no distinction
On the split appearance when the two have Become one in this smooth way of Being.

A state, a must, a natural overcoming
At least lived and testifying like the One Heart can rely on each other opening
And compassion.

Where is the stream and Where is the flow, who knows before

He, she is the stream and the flow.
Where is the word and where falls the Energy?
Who knows before being the word and Living the energy?
Where is the light and who is in love?
Who knows before being the light and Being love?
Where is the right and where is the wrong?
Who knows before overcoming both?
Where is the ray and where is the will?
Who knows before ascending the vine up to Its source and knowing the will as divine?

There are no more questions, all the answers must be resolved.

The response is in the experience and only there.

No more conflict or demand.

The Light has to resolve its unity through the two-sided

Appearance of its forms.

Now the master is no more influenced by them, he knows

Them as parts of the linear world of manifestation and all the causes are enlightened as are broken and integrated the barriers of the collective unconscious like the black veil individuals on pull over their clinging memories.

The wholeness has been overcome.

The one is bareminded,

The light is overflowing and the Master on the ground of incarnation

Is now standing in his, her mastery as The warrior of the
Most Radiant One.
Being his, her right arm, he Knows the left and Carefully uses the first to solve the Other area which Transformer he, she becomes.
Double-handed is his, her armor; the Power to be and the power to clean up,
On the right, on the left, anywhere now,
Is the answer to the forgotten questions
Of the soul now known as the Causal reservoir of the divine
Acquiring of his, her travel through Incarnation.

In the golden ray of the new balance
Unknown memory of the present, opening
A new age of gold passed through Silver, the Master, empowered by non-self and Covered by a shimmering light
Is now entitled to do and Create the best in and for the present as He is to change his, her pure reflecting mind to The most important, the most convenient, the Most useful way, through the very Means he, she can choose and use.

The connection comes first,
Then the guidance follows, now
It is direct connection to the Straight knowledge through power of Light and Love.
This is the note of the ray I,
That I, El Morya,
Govern and assume.
Now he, she, as master of the divine will,
Is empowered and impersonalized as Divine androgyny, he, she is not only Divine and human but one and all at The same time.

This gives him, her, the ability to Loosen their individual ties and Place them, without any judgment or Directive, in front of the mirror he, she,
Has become through empowered mastery.

I, El Morya, as the world Instructor,
Demand and gently advise people to Go forth on the journey of the soul
Without which, through initiations,
Nothing is possible and avoidable within
The full mastery.
Empowerment does not come before
This journey and to begin the second
Journey will be a simple illusion without the First attained and fulfilled.

Empowerment is a non-self process and I Know that this is very difficult to Understand, unless he, she has already Accomplished mastery on the first levels,
Only when someone has become aware of The double polarity of his, her male and Female energies and able to put them, in Total unity in all the areas of his, her Life expressed in incarnation, as a
Being in full mastery.
This is a state, this is not Personal any more; it is an individual process
Through and from individuals and Their aspirations and needs to their Wholeness as one and all.

Being the ones and knowing the one as An unity through light and love, the Empowered mastery is no more
Individual but still personal, it is yet
And so forth divine in all the implied
Skills as specific competencies and abilities.

The light,
The love, in the bodies, have become one
And alignment is the straight line to Radiance as it is to humanity.
This bi-directionality is, as are Ambidextrous skills, the means and the State, no matter what the Area of concern.

Empowerment is the crown placed on
His, her head when the soul has passed away,
Giving its best from the past, to the Present.

Now the moment is timeless and the State spatial as well as spaceless, will be Multidimensional on earth, giving him, her
Abilities to be and serve from one plane
To another, depending on needs and Urges that arise in individuals, as all humanity.

Being the laws you, as masters and Empowered, are life on all its Subtle planes, drawing the invisible of the Reality of the most Radiant One.

Light and love are the double-arrowed
Line of all transcendence, the same Energy, the same power, the same and Inimitable dimension of infinity, because
The will here is divine and only.

Being light you are love and Beloved you are one in the occurring
Radiance you have reached to share.
Service is the track and on it, for it,
Your vehicles of light are the self-process of Power of which divine will is the handling Wheel.

Nothing on earth is important any more.
Only the essence is pulling or pushing its

Urges to your purified mind as a
Reading access to action.

The speed of light is limitless,
The range of love boundless and on and
On you merge and immerse the Opened heart in the emptiness of the Universal mind where unborn ideas
As creative as the most Radiant One's Opening rhythm of the primal heart is to Be listened to like the echo of the Radiation of the one and all will which is to Be supported by you.

Cold or hot is no more, warmth and Smooth, hard or tough no more either,
The journey is seasonless and its Path has been cleared through the leaves of Your loss.
Light and clean here you are empowered
Masters of the ultimate human beings, back
To the source of your oneness and Right in the moment of a timeless present.

You are the torches and you are the Flame of the faceless approach of Formless radiance, the souls of non being and
The wise monad warning the worlds and Enlightening them.
Back to the will and in power you
And I, El Morya, are one, as we all are

With My Brothers and Sisters here and There, facing the veils in the translucence of Our connection.

The blueprint is, in its rainbow, the Expression of the perfection you are in Charge of and you assume in the Universal laws and their design.
Being there you have to implant,
Being here we shall print and from Both sides as one pure will, we, all together,
Shall do our best.

Ageless you remain in the springs of your Cycles, faceless you are in the Realm of the most Radiant One whose Brightness glows on the lines of your Forehead, whose transparency erases
The gaze of infinity in your human Heart.

Drops of any rain will no longer wet
Nor the burning flames of the Mental plane hurt your vehicle
Again.
Because from the third to the sixth
Your pain was so great,
From sixth to ninth your journey will be Blessed and from ninth to Twelfth, empowered again, your Brain will no longer, on earth, report

Anything from the inside journey
As a ray of light you travel and Return in the clearest of your nights as Full human beings.

Transformers of energies, ... your torch is Unbearable by those whom I, El Morya
From ageless time, fight in their dark
Forms with my disciples-warriors.

Now the time has come
At century's end, and through the next, to Cleanse and go forth with all of you,
Transformers of light through the Armageddon's end of this Cosmic evil.

No more good and evil
Will be faced as such because Conflicts will no longer afflict to your Clarified bodies.

The mind as such is still a tool,
The mental processes are mechanically operating Service to exchange and converse.

Now the veil and its darkness are Ultimate and have been transmuted and
From here and now only the present
Counts and enlightens the moment, a Clear drop of light crystal color in the Ocean of love.

The first journey is mastery,
The second one is fiery,

The third one is on the particles of light you become Through the expression of love as a state of being.
The universe is integrated in the monad and the energies of the laws, alone remain, while the laws continue their ways in the mind and heart of one to be integrated and lived.

You, on your third journey to empowerment
Relay the One's first beginning.

What beauty, what divine perfection of the One
That links together all actors of the divine playful game of Incarnation.

You, as masters and empowered masters,
And you all understand it is not the same Thing in the evolution towards light,
Must know clearly where you are and Why.

Empowered mastery is also total
Clarity of purpose and Plan, to Be available to the higher energies and
The demanding needs they respond to,
Through you and your divine
Competencies and skills to apply and Coordinate with the masters, you
Recognize and work with.

A network is already working as a

Light and love material to be used,
This swath is operational, the ones
Among you, on the third journey, will Connect through the heart while the Others on the second journey will Connect through the solar plexus.

The ones on the first journey simply Cannot connect.

Yellow and green are the lines of The connections to be made and this Will attract the ones ready for the Work they are supposed to support,
Understand and follow or initiate,
Starting on their own the Lighting processes of the Consciences to be awakened.

On the rails of love and on the Heights of light, you are the symbol of Infinity and the guardian of the Revelations of the initiations, as we all are.
All alike and the same our journeys are Different and specific are our skills.
One has to start and you are the light to Which one can relate.

Warriors, the flame is yours in the oneness
You have attained and in the least particle of Light you are the one and all to be Sent. Star seeds, the souls move to The monad and the Monad reveals the seeds of the Blossoming service of the Plan.

Reaching the one through each other,
Know the place and know the degree,
Remain silent and give the clues to be Used and the means to be held by one
And all, by and through the Network connection you will remain the Guardians and the givers, the Seekers will find you and the Work, though, will be accomplished and Understood as the connecting pieces
Come together to your hearts ready to Cooperate.

This is the service and through the Ways you will find them and trace the Path of infinity to be revealed.

Do not be talkative. Be understandable.
Do not try to convince, just know the Refrains and sending the energy remain and Pass by, waiting for the work to Cling and take meaning.

The only thing to follow is the energy.
Do not cling to people, link to energy and Go forward and go forth, your work is Here where you are or will be.
The place is right, the time will come,

When the time is, be sure to be where you
Have to be.

The secret of this mobility is in Letting go and being ready for what will Come, on the third journey you will Miss the people you have to work with.
Do not miss the connection, this is your Free will and only yours. Nobody will tell
You, nobody will force you.

Recognize and work.

Recognize and love.

Recognize the vibrations of the Hierarchy
Either through people's guidance or through Empowered mastery whose mirror
Will sometimes discomfort or trouble
You if the ego is still there.

Empowering goldness of the seventh age,
I, El Morya, is in all and in one, is in light and Love, the Manu of the seventh race.

You are the lights of the seventh race, on Earth, as pioneers of the operational Seventh body.

Know it.

Live it.

Find it. Be blessed as parts of us, as Parts of him, her, the Most Radiant One glowing his, her will
On the pure range of your soul beings.

From the gloomy haze to
The central beaming glow of the Luminescence of the most radiant,
From the first to the third journey,
On and on your awareness is Called upon to transcend.
From the soul to the monad and from There up to the radiances of the Brighter light, one and all have to Be, into oneness and infinity, the Steps and the path, because no
More ways are available.

Will is divine and
Love unconditional, the opened
Heart leads to power but it is not Attainable by any of the lasting
Facets of the ego.

On the blue coins of golden wealth,
You will find the colors of the Powerful ray aligned straight
Between the second and the third.
Far above the inside,
Far beyond and within,
From blue to gold, silver,
Integrated, has with both of them
Become white.
This is the synthesis of the most Radiant One, the
First manifestation of the uncreated

Gestations of his, her
Almighty Transcendence that we, us and You, must attain, wherein
One and all, we, you, and us
Remain and pass by.

Every journey is the story of an Integration.

The first is the integration of the Personality integrating the Lower energies of the ego where the Forces are present, the negative ones.

Then comes the integration of the Energies of the soul into the Personality
Bringing the possibility of contact with Us and the higher planes,
At once, this state of availability is Not yet permanent.

And, at least, the journey through Empowerment which is not yet provided
But that one must attain step by step,
On the footprints of Sananda and Beyond, through the higher initiation.
Initiation is the only way of empowerment,
It is, on the physical plane, the only
Path to follow, integrating is the whole
Point, every one must pass through that Process, even the members of the Celestial

Hierarchy when the Council of Shamballa
Has decided so.

For a master, on the physical plane, to be Empowered means to know the laws, and Apply them, but more than that, every Energy sustaining of the Universal laws must be integrated up to the Point where the mind and its mental Processes are no longer involved in thinking
About it.

This state of being toward non-being,
Action through and with Light and Love,
Energies can only be attained if, from the First step of the first journey to the Last step of the second journey, no one
Is missing. All the steps are yours and Here the responsibility and the service are
The best means to facilitate the unavoidable
Process.

Initiation is the ego test,
The soul test and the test of higher self.
No one can miss those tests and no
One can benefit in any way from a
Given initiation or a given
Empowerment.

The reliability is so important for Us that, watching the steps, we are Ready to support and help only if You are on this path of initiation and

Sometimes, you will feel abandoned and Alone there, because this is also a test.
Step by step Initiation will Put you to the test.
There is no other way.

For the members of the Hierarchy,
Actually on earth, the recapitulation
Sometimes leaves them in the Dark and dense vibrations of the World without any contact or link,
Apparently, with the inner planes and ourselves.
If then the slightest thought of Fear about impending severance from us is Experienced, then, the dark forces come and,
Appearing as light start to Use the instrument that you are.
Any connection but a connection, this Brings the transmitting person to an Illusion when the real vibrations are no
No longer lived because fear or self-doubt is
A weakness of the ego.
Unfortunately, we sometimes do not have Any choice and have to work with People who are really sincere and pure but who are Not advanced in their initiations, that Means we also have to deal, as they do,
With the ego. And this is not the Best way, this is why this Externalization of the Hierarchy has been Planned.

The Brothers and Sisters coming down to Birth on the physical plane are initiates of
The third degree and higher.

That means the integration has been accomplished
Through the first and the second journeys,
After their recapitulation, they start the Third on earth, among people, knowing
That the journey of empowerment is only
The integration to the higher planes as Embodied masters already empowered.

So be careful not to say or believe that
The journey through empowerment is a
Grace given by us to you as a gift.

The empowerment is the most delicate
Travel to complete.
The ego is not here,
The soul no more and the Monad is the non-self portion of someone Who experiences the Impersonal state of being as neutral and Strong as the particles of Our life
Expressing itself through light and love.
Here awareness is left behind and Presence is known as part of yourself.
In the Presence and turning back to the light,
The empowered master walks among You all as an invisible torch he, she is and Holds like a weaponless warrior.

If the images, metaphors, symbols seem To be abstraction to you, then you are Improving your mastery and have
To go step by step into it,
If you recognize the words here as the Energy underlying each of them then you
May be under your recapitulation and Mastery is known to you as you are Known by us.
And the next step will probably be Taken on the beginning of the Third journey.

Aspiring to the sky, a mountain, like a
Prayer, faces clouds and Severe weather exactly the way an Initiate remains still facing each Test on his, her own, from tempest to Snow shovels, no matter he, she can Blend or not in his, her heart.

Because the blood filling the chalice will Drip, rhyming each step of every Journey up to the fourth initiation, this Qualification then results in the Open heart.

Drop by drop, the blue ray of the esoteric
Meaning quality of the first ray falls red
Into the chalice; but first mixed with the Lower difficulties of the denser planes, the First drops are pink before becoming the Blood red of the initiation threshold

Of the open heart.

From blue to pink and from rose to red,
The flower blossoms its petals around the Circle of the mandala, which will be the Last one before higher initiation.

High on the summit and down in the pitches,
Nothingness is experienced and Enthusiasm is the bright haze supporting
The ego.

The soul is quietly waiting for its time to Come and the glowing shadows of the Non-self have no chance to disturb the Ageless quiet of its eternal present.

From the non-self to the none-self and
From the ego to the soul,
From ego-less to soul-less, the Whole process toward the monad--
Such a long way--is to be turned that
The only person who can discern and know the Next step to be walked is the Embodied master already empowered,
Still unknown because not recognized
Among you all.

Disciples of all degrees, if you accept the Fact that we all remain disciples even After our ascension, after the Sixth degree of initiation, which happens

To be, today, the higher initiation level on Earth.

The responsibility to serve is linked to the Choice of your path to initiation.

No matter the ways, they are many and Good, the path is one and melts
In the blood of the Chalice, when happens,
After so many worries and sorrows, losses
And cutoffs, the fourth initiation of the Opened heart, in Christ.

The crucifixion is the last cross left on the Calvary. Then, abandoning yourself to
The higher, the loss of the Personality,
Integrated and drawn in the ladder
Pink of its ascension to the soul, the Light has always been there but
The vision was absent.

Now the vision opens its eternal gaze
On the roots of heaven where the Monad, eternal immersion in the most Radiant One, stands and spreads.

Learning like a river flowing over pebbles,
Being calm and steady like an olive tree
Reflecting sunshine on its silvery greens;
Living like the air that feeds the lungs, and Teaching, through humility of the

Achieved Divine in the seventh bodies, like a Member of the Hierarchy or a Sage of the Council of Shamballa, that is the Accomplishment of the empowered master,
Down on earth, being in the world and not
Of the world, he, she, in the enlightening Particles of the radiant light, are one and All, able to know needs and Formulate answers, according to the Law, according to the Plan.

The empowerment from the powering
Colors to the crystal clear speed of Colored light, gives and takes away
What fits and burdens the human Shoulders, also divine, dedicated for Many lives to the service for humanity.

Individual are the aims, awareness the Means and all over the planet, from one
Target to another, the steps are the same
And also different.

The translucent stairs of the higher
Initiation are to be colored by Your capacity to integrate light.
From light to colors and from Colors to light, synthesis expresses the Whole rainbow of its hidden light and Love, as well as the specificities of its Multiple and multidimensional states of Manifestations beautifying the Universe's creation.

On the colorful slopes of the invisible
Rainbow, the Radiant One reveals the Range of her, himself, while, crossing the Paths of the ageless wisdom, us, as Masters, ascended and brotherly, assist
The empowered masters in incarnation,
And so occurs what must be available,
Under the auspices of the Spiritual Central Sun, Sirius, the next initiative
Step for the Hierarchy through Shamballa.

From the radiant violet-purple of the Descending rainbow, to the golden gate of The seventh dimension.
To the white and the silver and from them
Both to radiance, the golden age of the Seventh race as called by Sirius and Ordered by Shamballa in its Council, I,
El Morya, being the Manu, am in Charge and silently supervise this
Third journey through empowerment.

In the eyes of the ascended masters and Especially in my eyes, you, empowered
Master, on earth, will find the energy and the Discipline leading on and working through,
I am, as your Manu, the seventh and the Twelfth, the seventh in the whole, the corresponding Energy is of synthesis, the means are Divine power and will, and no one working Really with me can any longer remain indifferent

To it.

Without the purity and the loss of the ego,
Completely, this energy burns out and Throws away all the negative forces you Still harbor. It is harmful, it is Dangerous and I, El Morya, need the Purest, that only the empowered master's Pure transparency can give and Bear.

Unmusical or fancy is the distorted vision of those Who have not accomplished, within, the Entire first and second journeys.
Before the third you have to gather the Ungatherable, to blossom the reality of the inner Planes, to know the unknown as part of the Higher self and to walk all over your Interiority like on fallen leaves,
Forgetting autumn in the new Spring light of a journey's beginning, the Third, to empowerment is there and here
You are, master and brother, sister, alarmed
And aware.
Is your mastery achieved?
Are you a soul in the integrated Personality ?

Do you clearly know who you are not and Whose being you are?
Because, otherwise, any remains of the ego, pretending
To act as a soul, will be fatal.
Do not play with this, just remain vigilant; this Is the time of clarity.
The failure henceforth will not be repaired in any way
And the dark forces in the greediness of their needs
and
Materialistic desires are so happy to manipulate that you must be aware, conscious and honest.
You could be misused without even knowing you are.
This is very serious.
The fact of more and more channeling all over the United States is a bad and good thing.
All entities are not part of the Hierarchy.
All entities are not totally pure and well intended.
Some are, some are not.
One can only channel what he, she, is. The connection Depends on the degree of initiation as well as the level of Consciousness.
Who are you?
What is your degree of initiation?
Who are you channeling and
Why are you channeling?

All these questions are very meaningful and very serious.

This is not a game. It is a responsibility, and it is part of the world service.

One must attain alone the reality of the higher Planes. No other way is known except through initiation.

Do not rely on others, especially on the inner plane, be able to know the vibration, the purpose and the Plan.

It is so easy to channel, the responsibility is it not your own?

You trust someone else.

And what about your purity, your level of consciousness?

Your own degree of initiation?

The invisible planes are also astral, mental, and if your

Degree of initiation is not over, you will contact entities on these planes.

You must know who works on yourself for the apparently

Good reason that you serve.

Because you may be serving some entity's unresolved ego.

This is serious. It is not a joke.

I am amazed to see how the spiritual work can be avoided

For false reasons and wrong purposes.

Okay, you know that other dimensions exist, but what

About you? What about the other dimensions of your being?

Initiation is the only path, whatever way you choose. All significant explanations about it have been given By the Celestial Hierarchy through A. A. Bailey's work.

Be serious and if you are concerned about service, then you will be about initiation without which nothing can be done seriously before the third degree.

This third degree happens to be the first and reliable Degree for the Celestial Hierarchy.

Being I, El Morya, the Lord of the first ray and the Instructor of the Law, I warn you all.

The third journey, the journey of empowerment can be Delayed just before the third initiation and become the Empowerment by and of the dark brothers.

Watch your steps on the path; this is the most critical one, the most dangerous.

Either you pass the third initiation or you do not. And if

You do not, then, you are facing a light that, on the mental plane, still relieves and lightens forms. You may have contact and visions, converse, be the channel of some entity and unknowing, be completely manipulated with great sincerity, but lack purity.

I demand everyone interested or on the path of Mastery to ponder this.

It is a general panorama that, at one moment or another,
Concerns everyone.

Nothing resembles light more than the appearance of light

Itself, and you cannot face the Light of the most Radiant One before the third degree of initiation, or, first reliable degree for the Celestial Hierarchy, has been attained by your efforts.

Knowing whom you work for or with is not enough.
Make sure the Plan and universal work always Concern individuals and the planet earth.

Then, if you have any connection, know from and to Where the connection is made.

What are the chakras and what are they used for?

Is it the plexus? If it is, you have to be cleared up to the Heart or higher, otherwise the plexus is just one emotional

Platform for the uncleansed energies of the astral body.

Here I, El Morya, am especially speaking for those who will attain mastery in this incarnation, not for those who, already belonging to the Celestial Hierarchy, are embodied masters on this way to empowerment, they already know.

Because when you are of the third degree or fourth degree, you know it. Work can be different, the initiation has the same great line, even if it is a bit different from one to another.

Live your specificities but make sure that you are serving

The world and not a so-called master.

A master does not serve another master, they cooperate

Together and serve as one. That is why for the twenty-first century, another means is used: identification of consciousness.

Identification of Consciousness

The proceeding way is possible from and on the third Journey, from soul to monad; at the end of it, through Empowerment, the process has become perfect.

I, El Morya, for this part of the Teachings from the Celestial Hierarchy, and through the changing politics,

I

Am in also in charge, working with my mediator LC through identification of consciousness.

Channeling, or what is called so, may take place under Different forms.

It may be psychic and deal with the emotional body, the Connection is an unpurified plexus.

It may be mental and this is telepathy.

Telepathy depends on the degree of initiation, again.

Because the mental plane has three parts: concrete mental,

Abstract mental and higher mental.

On the first mental level, telepathy is a combination

Of interfering forces and energies of the emotional body and of concrete mental. The connection is also made through the solar plexus and no reliability is possible because anyone can come. It happens to be psychic on the lower level of consciousness very much tied to the collective unconscious.

On the second level, telepathy is connected by the inner Master, the soul and from there, to the mind of a master who imprints a communication on the mind of the receiver. Between sending and receiving several hours or days may pass. Here the connection is the third eye or ajna chakra.

The method is impression.

The third level, higher mental, is the purest Telepathy, from soul to soul. The contact is the crown chakra and the transmission uses the third eye or ajna chakra. This is the most current method for all transmission from the high entities and masters of the Celestial Hierarchy to disciples. It may be instantaneous or delayed, depending on the degree of initiation achieved by the receiver.

Telepathy on the three levels of the mental with detailed Explanation are available in the A.A. Bailey's books. Go to them and learn. Above all, go to them and work.

Our Brother Djwal Khul referred to the identification In A.A. Bailey's books, but, having yet no words for something that was not even a concept and should never be, the identification remained silent, in gestation.

Our Sister LC was prepared and trained on the inner Planes, between her last incarnation and this one, according to the work she had to fulfill with me and the ascended masters, my brothers and sisters.

This process started in 1990-91 with the books I Gave in French and now with this one I began in Boulder Colorado. But

Before that and in fact from birth, our Sister LC has been in identification training in her subtle bodies. Her recapitulation of consciousness had to be done on her own to experience all the thresholds and integrations of energies without any objective help.

Because the Plan had been delayed, our work started a Little later than we wanted. Above all, unpredictable cleansing had to occur on the inner planes, and you will all probably understand the discomfort and the troubles LC had, being the pioneer of this kind of work. The adaptation was difficult especially in Paris where she lived and we had to let her move to the country to start the whole process.

All these inconveniences are now solved and our work must be continued for the identification process she started and will continue.

She will introduce you to this process and give you the Keys and the traps. The work with her now is perfect with me as well as with the masters with whom she has already worked.

The connection is a permanent contact and she has no need to call for us or wait for it.

Everything: traveling, writing, meeting others on the Physical plane, moving into an external cycle or a gestative one; everything, absolutely, takes place at the right moment in the right place. The permanent contact is part of identification where consciousness is the thread.

The process of awareness through initiation is reversed
And it is now objective consciousness that is aware of what happens through permanent contact. It is no longer

Guidance, it is the straight knowledge minute by minute of what has to be done.

The symbol for it is the Archangel Michael on the Physical plane like the hanged man of the Tarot but having the head down on earth and the feet in the sky, the initiate here is no longer hanged, he, she walks and the sword has become words. Like an acrobat he, she is free of his, her movements and able to bring down the clarity of the Plan and its parts as well as to recognize and know who is who and anybody is on the ladder of initiation.

The empowered master in incarnation, on the physical Plane, is entitled to live this permanent contact, being him, her with their specificities on earth, he, she is also we, the ascended ones, one after another and in the global space where our work takes place.

This is the capacity of being on all the planes that the Embodied masters live and communicate if needed.
All degrees of the different initiations are integrated

Into the human body through the process of recapitulation and up to the sixth degree, which is Shamballa consciousness.

The empowered master in incarnation is a master of the Sixth degree.

For those who are on the path, this is an esoteric clue. For the others it will not have a great meaning, which is

Good to restrain all the extravagant things the mind could fabricate out of the illusions of the mental plane.

Empowerment of mastery is not such an easy thing if you

Understand that it is impossible without total mastery of all initiations and their degrees up to the sixth.

And so I, El Morya, am sure that this statement gives You matters to work on, if you are now able, as I hope, not to think too much about it.

Work and be blessed.

I have spoken.

The main reason why I am not giving here the clues of the Identification is because this process cannot be taught; it has to be learned through individual experience towards the most Radiant One. All the steps, on earth, have to be understood and walked, one by one, knowing that sometimes one step can tread on another, depending on the cycles and the rhythms, at the same time natural, personal and universal. The world and its unpredictable changes are to be considered as an accelerator as well as handicaps.

Our Sister LC has the uneasy mission, among others, to Give and communicate her experience in the area. She knows everything about this third journey through empowerment as well as the first steps of both the previous ones. All the tests, traps, cycles, rhythms, patience and

Application of the universal laws to daily life up to the Ultimate moment where the law is lived in all details as a Synthesis of light and love.

The other reasons why I am not giving the clues of The identification here are many, but no intellectual approach in any concept will do as well as the example of living experience you can see; and being witnesses you will testify to what you approach and live too and not on what you believe.

And so I leave to LC, my mediator, the task to inform And communicate her own experience as an empowered master of the Celestial Hierarchy. After all, she is among all and being at the same time we, in identification, she will know the terms and find their ways to you all.

From the white foam on the sea beach
A vapor evaporates into the sky of the Sands and over the steps imprinted on the Path; the blueprint of the Plan scrolls by

You all on the ground.
The reality is double-sided and from the Inner to the outer, the flow of energies
Rises or falls to your hearts.
In this portal opened in the depths of Infinity, light beams on and in, like the Portrait of an invisible face painted
Faceless in the mirror of love.

Because light and love are the same
Energy differentiated and synthesized
Like the one pole of an multiplicity that Grounds itself in many ways.
From Oneness to one and from one to
All, the skies are colored and shaped
In the clouds becoming the formless
Unified trace of a silvery white on The screen of your nights. And so
Time enters space, forgets and Mixes the hours in the eternal present,
Bringing to you the limitless spirit
Of the universal mind.
From step to step and from now to Eternity, the soul-less light of the Merging monad welcomes you in its Polarity towards the greatest and Lonely travels of the journey of Empowerment.
Wholeness and emptiness are the respiration of This breathing rhythm you will Share with the waveless tides of the
Most Radiant One.

All and each of the notes of the laws are Here present and, though soundless, your Heart is the one that beats the rhythm of Earth, to be the passage into and Within.

From space to earth and from there to Beyond, you are the embodied
Empowered masters and the Celestial,
Through the Hierarchy, is the timeless Resort you will never use and Always serve.

The will has become the radiance of the One and the most is in the cells of Your bodies, in the blood, in the flesh of
The transmuted ones you happen to Be forever and ever.

In the depth of your eyes one can find
The magnetic sign of the faceless
Oneness while the most and the best
Remaining energetic, fly deeply over
Inside the bottom of your heart.

From the search for the truth, all ways
Are now explored, giving you the insight of Global vision.

Silence is your space and love your Residence while light in your very cells
Irradiates your wholeness.

Who knows and who does not?
Only the same on the same route,
Because the divine and the light are so Strong that even love can be unknown

And rejected.

Now the human is divine and the Divine human in the nameless radiance of
The most beloved.

Be loved and be blessed you who have Achieved, the third is the endless leading Pass to other galaxies and from now and
From here will be known all beings, all
Non-beings, throughout all planets.

And so and on earth is the yet unrevealed
Planet to become sacred, because you
Have brought the seal of the most Radiant One in every footprint of
The steps you have walked.

From the very radiant bodies of yours,
To the energies they provide, keep on Walking the steps of the world servers.
The Star seeds come and sow the Planet.

Harvest is a bunch of energies chronographed
By the twelve rays.

Harvest is a scale of whispering melodies like
The colorful sounds of the universal notes.

In the bunch, on the scale, you are part of The divine process, because you are the Bunch and you are the scale as well as
The energies and the notes.

From the bottom to the top, from the Density to its subtleties, you know the Rules and earn the laws.

Now you are empowered by your Own energy, from dawn and up you know the Path to the faceless most Radiant One

Holding your heart wide open.
And so, on earth you pass by and Remain in its powerful energies, his
Her will, like a flame and its non-melting candle,
Like the warrior and the high priestess
Both feminine and male energies are Yours and part of the creative synthesis
Your works can balance.

This is the seal of the embodied and Empowered master, when the third Journey is achieved, understood and When will and power both in one
Become effective in the service on earth.

Gently affirm, never try to persuade;
Your energy will do what no word can Ever say.
Be and stand,
Serve and love, the Light is your radiance and we,
Ascended masters are your servants as
You are the servants of the Divine.
We praise as you do, and all of us in Oneness bow and stand before and in the
Most Radiant One.
And so we remain,
And so we love,
And so we serve, you and us in the Name and take glory of Him, of Her.

I have spoken.

From the leaves of my garden and from the Roses of your hearts, the fragrances and Perfumes of the lost stars come down to Earth and around the planet like a sash of Light.

On the prints and on the accents,
On the rhythms and over the roads,
On the shaking bounds of the Shimmering flights of the golden ray and
To the wide world, we, us and you, on the Rainbows of the silvery lights of the Numerous ways of the one path, wait for and Support the multitude of Individuals whose hearts and minds are Preparing for initiation.

When solitude has propelled life, as Daily as usual, as lonesome as ever, to the Delicate point of a galaxy, new, unknown
And far away from an outside
Distance to a very inner center, then,
On the testing route of initiation, our Invisible steps precede and follow those Souls in quest of their higher selves to the Lights of the rays showing the path,
Discovering the ways.

Where are the unpredictable choices

When do they meet the trouble of an Indistinct mind full of thoughts and Too busy to collect and discern what is
From what is not, what is not from what Happens.

The effects are gray pearls of doubt on the Thread of incarnations and from life to life the causes Gather what has been Required in a secret body for the soul to be Rid of, right before the fourth level of the Crucifixion.

From the pearls to the causes the thread has Once to break, delivering in its present cut the Wealth of experience.

For who knows the facts there are no effects,
Only the causes are real and with Me, El Morya, as a reminder, the mental plane is Crowded by the memories. A thought is
But a thought and in the disease of illusions,
From it to another comes and goes Forgetfulness. The mind is run by these Processes where thoughts create and Where souls watch, it is only when the Watcher is also the one being watched that,
Ending the process, the spiritual being can Achieve.

This is part of the journeys where the blank
Milestones indicate the East and its Dawning light in the longing curve of the Closed door on the premises of the
Most Radiant One.

When the way is too long from one to the Soul, then the monad seems not an Abstraction where the mind pushing thoughts Cannot see clearly what it should allow to Happen through the first law of faith.
Letting go and abandoning are the serious keys
To try on the doors and open the arched portal.
When the energy is there and available,
Who, if not ready, can take it as a Means?

Do not be shy, here courage is needed and
From one to the center it is a question of Timing.

Open up and be the portal in your open
Heart as you were the path and the steps on
It. There is no reason and no logic, it is a Matter of love and of light.

Initiation is priceless and to all on Their paths, just remember not to Remind and let them proceed their best to Meet the most of themselves out of the fears
And the pains erasing the selves from Them.

Green is found on the ever blossoming
Lawns of the heart and when Yellow is so still that the eyes are now
Dry, so and so will blue appear and Creativity reborn out of the colorful
Laws of the universe will through Indigo bring white and gold.

Silver as a receiver shines and glows
Its vase like a crown to enhance and Certify the ultimate ray, in the physical Body, to be shared.
On this way and this path you are the Path, you are the way and the means are All yours to be used and overcome.

Are you ready or are you not?
Where is your priority?
Who is the warrior and is he, she, born or not?
Each question is a part of self thrown away and tested.
You may answer but can you?
Charity here rhymes with purity, have some of your minds been cleansed away? None of them can be kept, so where is your priority and do you have this courage for the soul to appear?

Urges are gnawing the planet and the warrior now must Hurry.
Where is your priority?
And are you aware of the spiritual Plan?

Answering the questions is a very good thing but better than that if you could accelerate the processes of initiation and the awareness, then, the warrior being alive could begin and hasten the third journey through empowerment.
I have spoken
Have you listened to me?
Have you understood me?

Then, together and under my banner,
Let us work.
I have spoken.

Lighter than the lighter petals of Smothered flowers, will then be the Walk to the end of the Journey through empowerment.
Suspending its flight, the eagle,
White-legged and golden-feathered, will,
Higher and higher on the suns rays,
Go forth and through; nothing now
Can ever stop him from the most Incredible missions. Flying the Divine
All through the skies of the universe,
Going on and on, reaching, the eagle has Become the messenger of the law and Its dispensing caretaker.
Up and up the eagle knows the skies and Changing galaxies he changes the colors of The feathering dark coat covering the Worlds.
Towards the planets, friend of the stars,
The golden eagle flies and never lands,
Taking of and from the lights of The range he brings the notes to the Performance of the tune, now the vision
And the melody are one, closer and Closer they become to the Unbelievable radiance of the most radiant one.
And while the work goes on, dawn on Earth, while the service is the only priority,

While we, us and you, being permanently in Closer and clearer contact we, us and you,
Are the same and alike in our differences
And specificities, while the Plan in the parts of Its puzzle is settling down and alive.
The part of us which never lands meets high
In the skies on an endless flight where the White and the gold, unified and Still distinct, can breath another Dimension, in and out, in the non-being
State of reality.

The whirling vortex at the base of the Giant spiral is you, on the ground of Planet earth, embodied, empowered
Masters of the Celestial Hierarchy, the Spires are the enlarging opening of the Unlimited heart and to Christ and
From Him to the higher levels, the eagle, no Longer guided because he knows, traces in Multiple skies the passing flight of
The empowered.

Us and you, as we in all, can then
Remain anywhere, while the circumferences
Still remain here and now, all over
Space where time agrees to the Cycles and rhythms, breathed in and Out by the most Radiant One.

The impact of the eagle's flight on earth is the White and golden rays of power coming

From divine will and entering, straight
Down, the slopes of the first ray, into all the areas of Concern the Plan cares about humanity.
When the multicolored rays are used and Known as an experience of the divine on the Physical plane, hence and on the will is Divine and yours, because you achieved the Accomplishment, and the power, available,
Is no more misused because not a
Slightest part of your action can be started
On the personal plane of your lower dimension.
The vibrant eagle cannot be stopped and on His eternal flight you have joined him on The androgynous pole of your inner Spiritual journey where yin and yang
Have married; in the very chalice of your Empty heart, room is the only remaining
Space where others are included with the Very realities of the knots of their problems
To be envisioned, clarified and overcome.
You are the vision, the visionary, and being in The core of the knot, the only one Entitled to catalyze the energies and Give them room to loose so that the Individual through each distinct individuality
You have known may evolve and be able to Use the means on their own.
Saying or not the question is no more and
From care to core in the heart
Of their problems, you know and accompany
What they suffer with the high power of the

Visionary, and being part of it you are also the Eagle overflying them all and detached of Any pain or suffering.

Guide and continue, brother, sister, because like them
You are sharing the limits of the physical Plane they have to overcome.

Being the eagle and being them, your Circumference is nowhere and your center
Everywhere just like the vibrating radiance
Of the light spreading love out of the
Most Radiant One.

Because you are transformed in the very Cells of your density, you can now transform
The dark vortexes.

The white and golden eagle is immortal,
One Life is the residence of his heights, being Divine and powerful he knows individuals
As parts of inner loving will and
From divine and radiance, from here and
From everywhere the efficiency is yours,
Because you are the empowered masters
Of the Celestial Hierarchy on the ground of the planet.
This work is new, the twenty-first century will Be the scene and right now in this end of The millennium, our sister LC, my disciple and Co-worker for so many years, is, among the Multitude, the pioneer, the avatar, the Eagle and the woman.

Being able to co-create and my mediator
For this part of the timeless path on which the Plan is being elaborated, she, better than I

Would, will communicate and share the Reality of the eagle and the very work of The embodied and empowered masters of The Celestial Hierarchy on earth.

One of us, among the multitude, in the World and not of the world,
Eagle and woman in the core of our Work, she is entitled to bring on earth
This new path because she overcame and Achieved.

Working with her you are listening to us and I, El Morya, walk when she walks,
Speak when she speaks,
Breathing with her, in and out all the Very details of the works that I am in Charge for the Teachings in this present
Part and the changing politic world
Too.

Involved in both we are one and distinct in the
Most Radiant One.

Know this.

I have spoken.

ABOUT THE LAW in its Triple Dimension

In the figure above Light and Love are not mentioned. Because they are the base where the work begins. Without them, there is no Law. This is given for the empowered masters of the Celestial Hierarchy and Light and Love is acquired and lived, in all dimensions as a whole part of the processes for their different kinds of work.

Be aware too that the empowered master works in and Out of the Triangle. They give breath to the multidimensional space into the triangle of manifestation, which is divine but limited. Beyond the triangle, the flight of the eagle is the connecting thread, immortal and eternal and through the Externalization of the Hierarchy, the masters come and go, on mission for a specific part of the Plan to be achieved.

Bear this in mind. The Hierarchy now, remaining Celestial is also part of humanity and, in the world, is Celestial too, but being in physical bodies we have to mark this difference and point out that from both sides we work together in a complementary process.

Now the law...

- HARMONY -

This is the Law representing, in its feminine polarity, the Father or the most Radiant One.

Being empowered masters, you have reached the state of Harmony and remain in it. This divine expression of the Feminine cradle including you as empowered masters, gives you the ability to be centered anywhere and this is constant.

Landed on earth you are one non-landing eagle; merging

Into the radiance and able to be embodied and empowered, you are the Divine will which is the perfect state of harmony. I will not go back to explanations, they always reduce the experience and here is an energy that only few words can transmit. Do your own work of understanding; use the heart if you do not yet Have the experience.

Harmony is the upper point of the triangle. It is the divine

Acquisition and its operative line is vertical and symbolized by a double-pointed arrow. It comes from eternity and beyond the most Radiant One who empowers it, going to the center of the earth, as balanced as ever, no matter what or who crosses its light.

Love here is the measuring weight that keeps the balance

Always in the middle. The razor's edge. Harmony is the blissful state of the empowered master of the externalization of the Celestial Hierarchy.

It is the first condition for the law to be lived and Expressed.

It is part of the fundamental balance of the whole Universe.

Because the balance is attained through light and love and because harmony as a first and essential condition of the Law is the current state for the empowerment master, then comes

- ACTION -

It is, as you probably know, knowing and being in Harmony, you already serve, and this is concomitant. Action is:

Enlightened Love in action.

There is absolutely no action possible if there is no Love.

This is the open heart working at its best.

Action is the expression of Love and Love is the result of Light.

Now you see how Love and Light are the common designation for both Harmony and Action.

This implies the perfection through action no matter
The result.

There is no finality; the energies here work through good

Results or not, no matter, Love and Light are sent through action and continue on their own line, because the divine knows and the will is power.

And because the Action is this perfect, in the vision of a

Larger picture, then comes:

-RHYTHM-

This is the breath of the divine,

Installing its calm breath all over the worlds, once
Light

And Love are sent through the perfect action, they travel in and by the breathing rhythm of the divine and are meant to reach and touch what is needed, what is needing.

Rhythm is the beating heart of hearts, it is room as Well as space.

Giving room and knowing space, these again are the Specificities of Love and Light.

Here again see how they both are included in rhythm
and

Part of it.

The empowered and embodied master from the Celestial

Hierarchy is the triangle of the manifestation of divine Law, living it, as a part of his, her daily life in the priority of the service, he, she is Love in his, her right arm, Light in his, her left arm and his, her feet bring to the ground of earth the divine radiance that he, she lives, being in the harmony of the most Radiant One.

And so the divine balance of harmony allows the Perfection of action through Love as the perm alight of the most Radiant One travels all over in the very rhythm of her, his breathing placing in and out the right moment at the right place.

Is this not beautiful?

The radiant beauty of this Law is the most operational Divine magic known in this solar system, at the same time, it is the means to connect and work with other high entities of other solar systems and different planets.

This Law is from Sirius and kept by the Central Spiritual Sun, it is the link to the eagle and the radiance of the most Radiant One as the Lord of the unknown as well as evolution.

Earth and individuals are very much concerned and from Celestial Hierarchy to Shamballa and beyond towards Sirius, we, us and you and brothers and sisters from Venus are, for the twenty-first century the universal servers of the Law.

Venus knows the law, which is the first step of Evolution there; this is to be understood, it will give you a slight idea of what evolution can be on this Planet where Love and Light are basic and experienced as the usual state of being.

Sanat Kumara, the Lord of the world, has come from Venus to the head of Shamballa Council where he was asked to be.

Now, in this twenty-first century we, us and you, are moving with Him to Sirius, and the Law, through externalization of the Hierarchy, helps people to accelerate their evolution, and so, the earthly vibrations will be higher, this implies a lot of destruction within individuals and their lives but also all over the planet.

The Law is so powerful and the embodied masters will be

More and more present, so that earth is on its way to evolve as a planet and become sacred.

Why am I, El Morya, in charge of this specific time
And part of the Plan?

It is because, as I have already mentioned, the first ray I am working in is the only to assume creation-destruction in the process of the Law, with it and for it.

Empowerment is a very important issue and can only be achieved with the first ray as a straight line of power through and in the processes of the initiations.

Being the Instructor of the Law, I, today, reveal for my

Brothers and sisters on earth, the synthesis of their beings, with this first ray energy of divine will and power, the world is in trouble because it is so difficult to bear this energy harmoniously.

So if you are reading me,
Listen to the melody but above all,
Reach your harmony to give Love and Light, then know and be part of the Rhythm as bearer of the universal
Law, on earth.
Everything happens there and must Be implanted there.
Being in a physical body, for a master of The Celestial Hierarchy, is not so
Easy.
A lot of inconveniences are discovered
And overcome.
Adaptation is difficult.
But it is the only way we have found to Implant and live the energies in the World.

If you intend to attain mastery in this Incarnation of yours, and it is possible,
Do not forget my words.
Initiations and all their degrees are Unavoidable.
You must know and
Work on it.
All the steps have to be taken in Individual consciousness as the means

To awareness and mastery.
There is no other way, only one path.
Initiation.

I have spoken.

On the raw edges where some
Are waiting for the work to be done by
The light, only, effortless and without Responsibility for attainment, we Wait and feel sorry about the Wasting of time.

No one, not even us, can give you
Initiation, the processes of it are all
Yours,

We can use you, of course, to transmit
When some purity is there but then we Have the problems of the ego arising and
So much time wasted, so many Lost explanations.

Now mastery has to be attained
And achieved by a larger number of Individuals.

Achieving mastery up to the third Degree, first hierarchical degree, is Possible for everyone.

This is the second journey and we Are working with some women and Men, our younger brothers and sisters,
Who simply rely on us, and, dependent
On contact and afraid of being

Incapable or not being confident, because the Ego is still there, we just lose time.

Be responsible in assuming mastery up to the Third, then service is possible and dedication
Easy.

We need reliable people.

That is why externalization of the Celestial.

Hierarchy has been decided and is on

Its way.

You are part of the path if you read me now.

And reading my words starts the action

You should have within you.

How many hearts have opened?

But many are on their way to be opened.

So give them a chance and do not avoid initiation.

Even if it is, and it is, a difficult path to complete.

Do not think of empowering mastery.

Right now just improve your mastery through the process of initiation.

The ego is the target as well as the wall to destroy and Leave asunder.

You cannot simply remove it because it will come back Stronger, especially if you already serve, because service will also feed it.

It is no longer enough to be aware of it, you have

To resolve its totality to none.

And this will be the only efficient way the path of Initiation provides if you are ready.

So do it, and
Do it now.
I have spoken

You are not, you will not be the Masters to be empowered, you are
The potentiality of mastery towards empowerment
And here is a big difference, and Your journey through empowerment is Your own responsibility.
We are assisting you but so are the Brothers and Sisters of the Black Lodge on The mental plane.
They are present and powerful.
Do not misunderstand, I do not want to Scare you, I have to Warn you.

When a reading is been done by a Person, a disciple on a higher plane and When she, he has to enter the other Dimension in a sort of trance (that means,
On return she will not remember any-Thing about it),
Then, she, he may reach to us or not,
There is no certainty at all, because if There was, then she, he would be Able to work in identification.

The process is safe, totally safe, because
The mediator knows who is there,
With whom he, she works and there is no
Need to be out of the body.
Only during the night when he, she sleeps,
The mediator works on other planes sometimes Without remembrance but always, then, he, she Will be sure because he, she will know by the Energies used and the tiredness of the Physical body, where he, she has been Working.

This is very serious.
So much channeling is done in Wild ways that I have to warn you
Again and again.
And know it, Initiation is the only
Armor you must wear.
No one can be trusted, totally trusted, if
The ego is still there.
So, please, work on it.
Your label of light and love through Initiation is Initiation.
Know it and apply my words right
Away in your Life.
Because to a certain point, when the Ego is still alive and strong,
Life is the master and not you.
On this mastery you can only be dependent.
It is not the path, it is only the Way illusion plays with the ego.

Now you know and you have no more
Excuses to avoid initiation.
Do not follow the light of others,
Be the light.
Here is the achievement.
Here are the steps towards the third
Journey through empowerment.

Like leads thread the Soul's continuity,
The row of your lives leads to the Third journey through empowerment,
And sooner or later you will find the Means and start on the path.
Now, because of the externalization of the Hierarchy and because of the works
Given on and about initiation, most of You, among the disciples, can take the Decisive step to mastery.
This step is up to you and is walkable
In this very incarnation, it is available.
The question is:
Are you available?

The question is important and the answer
Must be an honest quest,
You may be in a total good will and Ready to serve, if so,
To whom are you available or what, and Again, whom do you serve?

Because you have to know that you
Should never, ever, serve someone.
Remember, never.
I have spoken.

You, empowered masters of the Hierarchy in externalization, you are
The golden feet of the Celestial army Walking the path and working the Plan on earth.

Wherever you go, and mobile as you are,
You are tracing the golden network of Consciousness as a magnet attracting the Needed ones and the competencies useful for
The Plan and its parts.

The belt line of double reality is Earthly implanted and spiritually Grounded.

Your powerful steps are the milestones of
The belt line and the gold and white
Eagle has its roots there too, where you Go and stay, always remaining when Passing by, the Plan calls you elsewhere.
The clear crystal colors of your Transparent bodies are just the Vibrating octave of the harmonious
Melody coming through and from the
Most Radiant One.

And so you serve because you are and Being so you are able to remain and go Toward the radiance of the most

Radiant One, each step is in humility.

I am the world server and in the radiance of
The most Radiant One I am the golden
Warrior, his, her armor and action.
Everything is made possible, not as a Personal or individual power but only and Absolutely by the capacity, empowered by the Energies, my life and my duty, to Let go as a torrent because the response goes Right away where is perceived the need and,
As a mediator, empowering mastery, I Am the energies, and so, able to allow them to Go, I am never the manipulator. I always Remain the flowing source of the radiance.
I cannot interfere anymore because I am
And not, I is far away behind, buried
Under the ashes of the dead ego which the Celestial winds have whirled and dispersed
Under the arrows of the rays.
Now being I no more, being still I for the Purpose of service, I is the tower and the Openness vertically improved and Naturally powerful in the great radiant
Will of the most Radiant One.

The more the power the more the identification,
The more I is non doing, the more I is Improving, the best is known, in all the Bodies, the energies, the most instantaneous is the Result and practice of the process leads to Living the mechanism.

Then I being the radiance, the energies and the Experience, the mechanism is but an instrument Empowered by the One Life and the more the Empowerment, the less mechanism is a Problem non-interferences are possible.

Now, to you, empowered masters on the Ground of Earth, the mechanism through Experience becomes a reflex and thought About it is no longer needed, the higher Energies and permanent contact, above the Mental processes, have become the reality of the Embodied life.

The will is divine, and the One Life expressed in The purity of its manifestations.

And because I is now relieved by humbleness, Transparent I, you become with us the one Powerful I whose synthesis in oneness can Express as I the parts of it we remain and Be.

You know that words here are symbols of The reality and, as it always is When the experience has not yet improved, Fetch one, they only give you the reading of Your own where I is still I, in this case, Simply let the energies of the words fill your Heart and do not try to analyze the Processes here described.

The mental process here cannot be, it Would simply slash and destroy the Inherent reality of the working energies

When, through initiation, you have known
The I, overcome it into I before, at Least, improved through experience the Synthesis of the I we, us and the Embodied empowered masters, our Brothers and Sisters, mostly to come,
Know from each other for being
Each and the other.

This writing is energetic and at the End of this book you will not be the same,
While, at the same time, you will be Connected with the higher energies of
The Ashram if the connection for you is Possible.

Like an electrical socket, like the power of the Current within, not everyone will be Able to make the connection, but you,
Each of you, will have the opportunity to Make it possible, through the process of Individual Initiation and then through Group initiation.

But I have to repeat myself again to Make it as clear as possible.

Initiation cannot be avoided, it is the Only way for your vibrations to rise
Higher.

The first part of Initiation is known by Jungian psychotherapists as individuation,
It is unavoidable. Its concern is the First journey, the comprehension of the ego and

Its stability, then and only then can you go Further.

This becomes now a very esoteric clue for Any of those who feel attracted by higher
Energies and service, because of karma and Dharma.

Too many channelers now in the United States especially, and all around the World, are nothing more than psychics.
Psychic powers are many and not safe
At all.

You must know that.

When you are used to something, everything is all right.
But then, depending on the entities you are Working with, it can be difficult to step Away. Then problems can begin and Drive you mad in the very sense of the Term.

That is why, before channeling and only
Before, you must cleanse and purify Yourselves.

The operation of cleansing is Initiation and its Degrees.

For instance, you cannot practice any Discernment before a certain degree of Initiation. Discernment is still a mental Process, so, how can you be sure about
It before your mental process is no
More than a pure mechanism you know how To use and when.

Mental processes can be a distortion of the mind,
And it is always before the acquisition of the third degree.
That is why the third degree is
The first degree for the Celestial Hierarchy.
This is the first step in reliability.
And no one can avoid this step because then
Very quickly, it can become a false step.
Be conscious that here I am not playing
With ideas and words,
Be conscious that this is very serious and
That right now, especially in the United States, many, too many, entities on Several planes can play with all the Channelers wandering on intermediate Planes with their psychic abilities.
This is dangerous for the channeler,
For the country and for the world.
Because those intermediate planes are Saturated by the energies of personal Powers of those who do not want or Can go higher.
Some are good, some are not but the Reality for you, each channeler, is to Be involved in a process you can no longer
Control. You may go out of your physical body,
You may read,
You are not aware while reading,
You come back, and no longer know
What has happened.

Those processes you will have to forget

Because the work for the twenty-first century is, for the Celestial Hierarchy, totally different.

You will have to be aware of every bit of Process concerning consciousness and Other planes.

As long as you work with us, from the Celestial Hierarchy, and some of you do,
Your primary responsibility is Yourself, you will have to start the Process of Initiation and go through all the Levels, degrees, thresholds of it, because
It is the only way to empowerment.

For some of you, a great purity of the heart
Through intention up to now has served as Protection against the dark forces and we Have worked together or you did with some of us, and You have already or we have

Connected with you because it is quite impossible,
In the United States to find a mediator.

Everybody is channeling.

Sometimes the channel is okay, but, if You, as a wild channel, do not take this Opportunity for initiation, then the danger
Is there to deviate and we, as ascended
Masters, cannot do anything about it.

The Celestial Hierarchy, as far Light and Love are concerned, always respects Connections made with elementals and Spirits of those planes.

This initiatic tradition is a powerful
Tribal group consciousness, very powerful;

And the collective unconscious of the tribes
Are so connected and help the travels by Keeping those astral and lower mental Planes in deep and strong contact with The etheric bodies altogether as one which then Becomes the take-off and landing place of The Shaman's energies in its etheric body.
This is why everyone supports it, both by Physical presence and etheric response.
After the natives were slaughtered,
The spirits of the two planes mentioned
Made a connection through the etheric with
The collective unconscious of the killers.
And from that time, they have been Attracting more and more people to Continue their transmissions through Possible connections available.
Channeling was born.
Because the western mind and tradition is Far from the shamanic Initiation and
From the worlds where spirits wander,
The wisdom of the tradition left by, only
The magic of it remained.
The channeler is a false shaman.
The channeler is a usurped means.
He, she is the victim of the American
Dream's karma, traveling through powers
And traditionless, wisdomless uses of them,
Not using awareness and under Unconscious control through the causes of Karma to blind consciousness merging into

Blind travels he, she cannot recall anything
About them.

Karma has been created and the
So-called channelers who recognize Themselves here, are nurturing this Karma, unconsciously, because every Psychic ability is a way to bear this Karma and contribute to make the burden
Of it more and more alive.

Shamanism, being a traditional tribal Initiation is done under consciousness and Awareness. This has been lost.

This is why, now every channeler, every Person interested in the spiritual journey
Through empowerment has to start by the First step of Initiation and understand
The rules and the laws that are part of The universal laws and part of the Synthetic law given here, whose Instructor, Myself, El Morya, is, for and Through the Divine radiance of the Most Radiant One and above.

Understanding this karma and its Laws from causes to effects you, channelers,
Will be able to understand that you are The puppets of a show where the strings are Pulled by the effects.

You are living and nurturing the Effects, keeping alive the karma for the Future generations of not only the American

People but for humanity.
The interdependence here is much
More than all you can imagine.

Do you realize at what point you have Practiced channeling in total
Unawareness of the collective point of View, including people, nations and History, reducing this channeling, to
A personal capacity meant to Serve, which is nothing other than Pride feeding the ego and a «personal
Master» you serve.

No way.

Service is not serving one but all,
Service is not serving one of us from the Celestial Hierarchy, service is for and to Humanity and for and to the world and The planet.

Only when you know the global plan
Are you able to serve and cooperate
From the physical plane, being a Conscious and aware co-creator on all the Planes.

This is possible through initiation and
Only through initiation.

May this explanation, with all the respect we Owe to the American natives whose Initiates are in high-level consciousness,
Be the first step in comprehension through

Relationship for the twenty-first century.
Because it is an esoteric clue, its Meaning is as strong as the energies on both,
Native and new American people, and Awareness in the objective understanding of Both sides one of which has been initiated and
The other not.

The common language is through initiation as
Is understanding through comprehension
Extended to collective karma and individual Responsibility before Dharma.

The embodied and empowered master from the Celestial Hierarchy through the Externalization is Also a shaman, the only difference is that,
The capacity to be the others and know
Through vision, is the faculty of the Open heart and no longer depends
On the etheric plane and body.

This straight knowledge is part of the Shaman's travel but does not need to Travel out of the body, it is conscious
Awareness, the straight and constant
Vision, the light and love through
The law,
Harmony, Action, Rhythm.
From esoteric comprehension of the Higher degrees of the Higher Initiation
A constructive cooperation and collaboration
Could be the next step both

Native Americans and Americans,
Can walk together.
On both sides, as we, us and
You all, we should Evolve together in the enlightened
Path of the third journey.
This is the way to step out of Collective karma and resolve
Most of American society's Problems of violence, which have not Stopped from the beginning of the Slaughter of the natives, and is Now spreading into society through so
Many uncontrollable forms.
Everyone of you, channelers, and Others, all disciples of the light should Improve love through the renewing of Better relationships according to the Esoteric and spiritual vision
Provided here.

As empowered masters, you are
One and can understand the whole
Through global vision, bringing its Unrevealed parts to expression and
So, manifesting the light of the most Radiant One, you can love and act
In harmony.
This book is a manifestation through Expression and experience of the LAW.

I, El Morya, hope and know for good
And the best that each spark of this Work of light, each note of this Work of love will touch and
Be perceived by the eternal
Plane of Christ's potential in the Heart of each.
And so as I said,
I have spoken.

Channeling and low self-esteem
Are often linked, on the physical plane, when the Person, being pure and spiritual, missing the Whole technical part of the science of energies as An internal process she, he is responsible for Being aware, simply relies on the energies she, he Feels as independent of her, him.
First, the master is the inner one and the Energies of the soul are the first to be Perceived, if one believes that it is Coming from somewhere else;
Someone else, he, she gives power to
Some fancy imagined or real entity to use his, her
Capacity to be related to higher energy.
Through the technical science of initiation,
This is not possible.
It is a matter of discernment and Before being related to your soul, no
One can ever think of being linked to Higher levels and

Connected with the celestial ascended masters.
The degree is the third and Before that, the connections can be with Anything and anyone, so many Wanderers on the lower planes are Looking for such an opportunity.

Awakening before the third degree must
Be a self-conscious process.
Even during the initiatic process of the Recapitulation of initiations concerning the Masters of the Externalization, even though
The first means are the same because They come and must the same Way as all do.

Too many people right now are Missing the energies of the soul because They are focusing their mental abilities
On someone else.

This is the teaching for the Externalization,
Get ready to assume mastery and
Not to be dependent on anyone else.
Thank heaven, the problem of too many Channelers is not the same in Europe
Where these Teachings started, because with the Strong mental processes anchored in a
Burdened collective unconscious, not many Entities on the mental plane are ready to Use channelers.

France and Germany are actually the Countries the most handicapped with the Dark forces of our Brothers and Sisters of The Dark Lodge.

This is why my work for the twenty-first century
Has been scheduled there, in France, as the First step. Anchoring the energies of the First ray was a necessity and our Sister
LC can tell you about all the Difficulties we are working out over there.

So, rely on your soul, the inner master,
The higher inner self, which happens to Be known through initiation as the Enlightened one. Before being a soul
Working on earth, the non-self has to Reach the soul through alignment.
Alignment can be safely and surely Attained through the process of initiation.
Science of energies is an empirical travel,
Only experience in applying it through Discernment in and with all your bodies
Is efficient.

Faith, trust, confidence are all right,
Though, do not miss the point, it is your Own work toward Light;
Initiation is the path, it is not anarchic;
It is not magic either before you reach the Light of the soul.

Then only is your soul enlightened,
The integrated personality,
The non-self,
On the first steps, is known and overcome

As is the soul then, when the energies
Travel towards the monad after
The destruction of the causal body,
Previous incarnation, positive being of the soul
Every one will have to leave behind.
I know that this is difficult to Understand for the majority.
You are no longer the majority and,
With it remaining on the higher levels of Consciousness, your awareness is
The initiatic laser of the celestial
Hierarchy working on earth.
So work, be aware and Let consciousness of the light
Blossom on the invisible footprints
You follow for all of them to discover.

With the externalization of the Hierarchy,
The initiatic process is reversed as it is,
When going from the personality to the Soul an energetic inversion takes place
Up to the monad.
The embodied master of the Externalization
Descends to earth and the Initiatic process here will control the bodies
Through the physical body.
This process is very hard and the difficulties Experienced by your Sister LC will be Less and less because the children now in Incarnation are improving the same
Process.

You already understand that I am
Pointing out two different processes.
One is about attaining mastery in this life.
That means you have not come as an Embodied master.
The other is the recapitulation of Mastery and the control of his, her new Bodies by a master descending to Work among humanity.
Both processes are from and through Initiation, they are different and the Purpose of the Teaching now is for The externalization of the Hierarchy which Has been announced and mentioned in The works of D. K. and A. A. Bailey.
Unfortunately, I have to go back and its First steps, which have not been Applied or are not even known by the Majority in this country, the United States.
Of course, I am not writing only for The United States but channeling and the Misunderstanding of the Initiation about
This specificity here is one of the reasons this Book is written.
May it be understood.

The Seventh Golden One

Being the cup and the Double-pointed arrow,
Being the Light and living Love,
Full human being and global divine will,
The paths, heretofore, have brought means and States according to the needs and the planes
Where the work has to be done.
In the magic of the most Radiant One,
Power can never be learning, it is
The ultimate state where unconditional
Love is welcome and sent by the Ultimate Light for no purpose and no means.
It is, simply, here and everywhere, for the best and
For all, here and everywhere to be known,
Perceived, applied and lived, here and Everywhere for all to recognize and Follow, to bow and accept.
Being in this state that corresponds to the Sixth and greater, is the higher level of Initiation on earth, right now and the Energies flowing through are bathing in the Source because they are the Source.
Now you can make a difference,
Being connected to the Source or Being the Source, and there is a big Difference which is the occult key to

The seventh golden one power.
The S. G. O. will never, ever leave or Act with this power, simply, now, he, she Has become the power.

He, she is the power and no more
Willing action, never, will be done.
All these words, willing, do, have no
More meaning.

Harmony, action and rhythm are parts of the Divine will in the most Radiant One and
From now on the coordination, perfectly
Synchronized, are the double-pointed Arrows, never missing their target because Aimlessness no longer makes any Difference or separation between Any one.

It is, and it works where it must Respond to needs and protection.
This is a state of Non Doing
This is why everything now can be Done.

Now you, probationary disciples and masters
Of the third degree; now, all of
You can reach out to this Light; you
Can always ask or connect, but the Answer will come to your real need and the Signs will be surprising, because you Cannot expect, still being in the ego or the Mental mind, the right answer to the Real need. It is so amazing that even in

The response lies a magic you cannot even Imagine.

You will see and feel it, afterwards, but Your expectation will never be fulfilled the Way you expect it; this is a fact, one of the Laws of the relationship between the Seventh golden state and the disciples up to
The fourth initiation, Christ level.

It is a rule you will start to perceive; you Cannot understand it with your mind, when After the third and before the fourth, you
Have attained «letting go» and are able to Integrate it on all levels of consciousness of Your being. This is much more than Awareness.

Talking to you all about higher initiations is Not easy, this is because the higher we Reach and live, the simpler it is, this Simplicity cannot be understood by the Mind in its mental process, there are no
References to it, it is unknown and nothing
But experience is related to it, nothing
But living the radiance in the most Radiant
One can convince any one, nothing but being,
Nothing but experience, nothing at all can Bring down the reality we are Talking about.

Of course we can accomplish what are called Miracles, but we no longer intend to Do so for this part of the Teachings, it was Done during the first part

With my beloved disciple-master
Helena Petrovna Blavatsky, and that Was kind of a mistake.

Doubt is not something miracles can solve.
Doubt is the surviving process of the mental;
It does not give up so easily; otherwise
A big and beautiful miracle would be the Way to convince everybody, all of humanity.
But here on the path of initiation, the Purpose is not to convince, it has never Been, it is to achieve, within everyone, Through individual consciousness, the Divine form and in its source of Radiance.

This process of Initiation depends on each person,
The only miracle there is the capacity for All, individually at first and then in Group consciousness; to reach the goal of The soul who then can merge in the Second part of the journey in the Bigger, wider light of the monad.

This is the goal of the soul, and no one
But each can start and Achieve the process.

We, ascended masters cannot make you
Better and will not.

Of course, we are working with some of You, Non-perfect human beings, but always
In the urge for service and always
We warn you about the work to be done
By yourselves, on the ego.

If this is not heard, there, it is a Question of time and someone else who Will have reached and achieved will soon
Be a new collaborator.

This also is a rule, esoteric and accurate,
Unavoidable. It is up to you as I said.
And no channeling process in the world
Can change this.

I have spoken.

In the world process of the externalization of the Celestial Hierarchy, a few of the seventh
Golden ones are now coming through birth.
After the work being done by LC with us for The Teachings and with the energies our Sister has already and will settle in for The twenty-first century.

The work of my Brother Kut-Humi is part of The main process to energize the planet and Bring to awareness some of the disciples,
But now as I talk they are demanding to Enter consciously in the Unavoidable process of initiation.

This is the network of light we need
Against the dark forces to integrate light
On the physical plane by cleansing the Darkest vortexes of energies they create.
The initiates on earth should all be Able to transform these energies into light
When needed.

This control and knowledge of the Transforming ability is only possible
Through initiation.

Advice and means can be given by us but Learning to control this transforming Process is nothing but experience on the Way of initiation.

This particular part is experience to be Controlled between the third and Fourth degrees. Between the first Hierarchical degree and the Christ level.
There, in between these two degrees, you
Learn how to handle and control it.

Because, as you may know, the Third degree is the one where you have To face the Dark Brothers and Choose the light and the Hierarchy.

For the masters coming back to Earth through externalization, this Passage is at the same time, easier and Extremely difficult.

And for our Sister LC the extreme Difficulty was to be totally alone on the Physical plane, no one to ask or refer to.
Her work was to initiate the Conscious way through this part of Initiation taken on the physical plane,
Following members of the ashrams.

We, I asked her to give her own Experience as a testimony and as a Teaching.

This is the recapitulation of Initiation all
The coming seventh golden ones will have to Improve on their own, on earth, and
This is what D.K. with A.A. Bailey called The seventh race of which I, El Morya, am the Manu.

The seventh golden ones are, as I told you, the Power, no need to use it. Their beings are Power, a living proceeding experience in The physical body.

For example:

While we are working, at this very minute,
My Sister LC is at the same time
Identifying consciousness with me and Transforming energies she connected and Disconnected from their shadowed
Vortex of an individual, a so-called Disciple who has not run the initiation
Process and who is channeling...

This doubled-oriented work she is involved in can Be done without any focusing or Unconsciousness on her part because she
Is on all planes where she needs to work,
The very power itself of the radiance in the
Most Radiant One.

This is divine magic, one of the books we Wrote with Sanat Kumara's energy.

This experience can tell you more about the Seventh golden ones than any intellectual Approach threatened to become through

Our mental process no more than a Concept.

Giving is the key,
Opening is the way,
Initiation is the means,
You are the ones,
Golden is the light,
Transparency the color,
Initiation the must.

The Law is experience,
The triangle its expression, and
As you are both,
The triangle of the Law
Takes shape on Earth,
Drawn by the blood of the Chalice of each heart.

In the best and the higher
From the bottom to the top, then
From radiance to the physical plane,
The journeys are,
Just join them, the
First step for you is Initiation.

Power is transformation and whatever
Work is to be, it is through Energy and transformation.

All the seventh golden ones in each of Their specificities are transformers.
They do not intend to do so, their State is a transforming capacity dealing With all of needs, all of them, even Still unconscious if individual
Need as an inner knot blocks
Evolution.

The difficulty to be mentioned is the Adaptation of the physical body to the Transformative process that has to finish
Down in the very cells of it.

The moment when the process starts its End, horrible pains can be, and are, felt
All over the body-headaches, gas,
Stomach aches and so many discomforts
Such as diarrhea and throwing up
Coming then, after hours ... the relief is Unbelievable.

At the beginning it seems a very long Process because each center has to Transform and transmit at the same

Time and this, from the center, which was At work when the need came. It can be Any of them, depending on the needing person or the Collective consciousness in a crowd or a
Meeting or even helping on another plane.
If the plexus is solicited, then the process
Has to go up to the crown chakra.
But it can be from the sacral and then it
Is going to be longer.

The digesting process of the transformer is A terrible one, at the beginning of the control the Master is learning it by experience.
It is, on earth, one of the most difficult
Thing mastery has to improve.
After a while, the process becomes easier
But it is always very tough with some Dark vortexes.

The seventh golden one knows the difference between A simple transforming process and when the Dark forces are involved in it.

The impact is different and the Energies extremely hard.

The transforming process on the physical Plane is the most difficult one for the Physical body to bear, and control
Is also in the letting go and the Total acceptance of every second in the Pain and suffering to go through before Being in the global light of the Transformed energies into light.

My Brother Saint Germain is the alchemist,

The transformer and as our Sister LC
Did not turn to me asking for help, as She was in great difficulty, He gave Her an invocation to help; it was Just for help; she had to go all over Every minute of the process, but the Energy sent by the invocation to be Applied helped her to burst into Tears, what a relief needed
To go on.

She will tell you about it.

By the time you are improving on
The physical plane the seventh
Golden one you are becoming, you usually
Do not ask for anything to help you.
Because the ego is over, there is no one to Ask. The soul does not ask; the monad
Does not either, only the ego asks for help.
When help is really needed, We Give it.

We are never available for help as your Mind imagines, We automatically
Give it when the real need is there.
So when you ask for help, that means
You are still in the ego and maybe there
Is no need for us to help.

Because We are present within you,
Because We are one with you,
When the golden seventh is being and not being Thought about or not yet reached.

The reversed values, lived and experienced on all Levels of consciousness by the seventh golden
One, are not the same but the opposite of What the ego can evaluate by itself from its Points of views.

From the ego portion, there is no way, ever, to Go consciously into a process it knows will be Painful and suffers to learn and experience the control
In a way it does not like. The ego does not enjoy the Transformative process. If the ego or parts of it Go through even once the reaction will be:

«Never again».

Only the soul and the monad to the Seventh golden one can enter the process
Because here unconditional love is Already in it, being the level of the Soul's other form,

The seventh golden one makes no
Choice, he, she is experiencing and Living what others experience in their difficulties
And knots on the path of evolution.

The seventh golden one is the helper, the Transformer, Christ Light on earth and the Full divine human being of the Seventh golden dimension working among Humanity.

This is the purpose of the externalization of the Hierarchy and the decision for it was Intended and radiates through the universe by the Radiant mind of the most Radiant One.

The seventh golden dimension is now
Beginning its earthly walk and the Twenty-first century will be the realm of the Most Radiant One on the planet of which this Part of the Teachings I, El Morya, am
In charge, introducing you all to the Most glorious dimension of the light
Available to be embodied.

Blood and flesh will be radiating,
Ear and eye will be in the vision.
Hands and feet will be the Christ allegory,
While the seventh golden one will live and Express into incarnation
Beauty, goodness and truth become Harmony, action and rhythm, the next step on Earth for the Hierarchy to improve.
Be the ones to start the golden walk of the Celestial Hierarchy on the ground of the planet,
Part of the global Plan for humanity.
Being the seventh golden ones, you are Serving on the double-pointed arrow with the Radiating light of the most Radiant One and
So, you are revealing the unsolved esoteric
Clues to the means in the very daily life of a Man, of a woman.
This is the divine realm now on Earth and this is the service for which you are Called by us, ascended masters of the Celestial Hierarchy, to reach and achieve
Through initiation.

May Light and Love, given in this writing,
Overwhelmed by the rhythm in the secret triumph
Of manifestation of the seventh golden ones,
Be the awareness in each heart and soul of
The new coming age the Twenty-first century will be giving to birth.
And so, I, El Morya, have spoken.

Down to earth and up to Us, on the Double-pointed arrow, the divine light and Almighty love goes forth on both sides, and on Forever to eternity, bringing awareness to its Potentiality to be seized and worked by Humanity.

On the golden arrow of infinity, sliding up and Down, on their shiftless scale, the Seventh golden ones, in the radiance of the One, shall never stop their coming until the Very last of humankind, as Yet on his, her own, truly
Enlightened.

The most Radiant One's realm is the Kingdom of God that other traditions
Have so spoken of when the limitless
Power of the seventh golden ones was About to be and was not yet achieved.
In the chaos of none, timelessness already Plans the schedule of order by Means of the rules and when the Human mind is able to receive,
Information can flow as a

Torrential rhythm, depending on yes that None, unaware,
Can pronounce
Awareness.

Formulating the energies gives them
The power to strike and smoothes from the Meaning of the most Radiant One, the Impact to implant on the minds and on Earth.

On the heavenly reports, available on Earth, from the Plan on both sides of its Operational facts, try to find the one where You fit and bring your competencies and Good will to the seventh golden ones.

This is the task of the disciple from the first Degree of the hierarchical initiation up to the Sixth which happens to be the golden being of the Seventh ones.

Contacting, on the physical plane, this golden
Power and the emanation of Light and Love
Through and into the most Radiant One.

When initiation has not been achieved, then,
Harm can touch and force the Transforming process by and in the seventh
Golden one.

Contact is easy, but not the connection of Purity from the heart, only the fourth
Degree is able to make.

In the collective unconscious of humanity
Wander those who want and the searchers,
Those who are looking for, and also the ones in Quest of gold, all of them depend on The basis of their ways leading to The point where they join on.

In this crowd of unconsciousness and Particles of light and love awakening, the Seventh golden ones are marching
Off to the hearts of all, giving, opening,
Releasing the energies of the most Radiant One in the statements of fact their Harmony is able to make in the inner Points of their action, when available on The Rhythm of One Life.
To this point, I, El Morya, will, for you all
Not yet part of the seventh golden ones,
Give an opening to the Statement of fact governing and expressing
The inner being of each that the Seventh golden one is able to be in all.
This important subject is the new part, on Earth and the physical plane of the Plan.
Every seventh golden one will have to Go through, no matter what his, her Work is, it is the transforming part of The transmuting energies he, she is here to Help and be.
Here Light and Love again, in the Manifestation of their expressing triangle Process is the respiration through the Changing bodies of transformation every one
Is going through the initiations and Their degrees up to levels of consciousness,

You may imagine, higher and higher.

After every turning point of initiation,
Another door, another point,
Another turn.

From third to sixth and from First to fourth, the round becomes the Wheel and the spokes the Colors where the light on and on,
Whirls the spires of the ascent.
From the peak to the pitches and on, the Climbing disciple goes up the descending
Spokes to the point where change
Becomes the very movement of life itself
Into One Life.

From one turn to another, the turning motion
Of the turning process revealed to be the travel,
Unveils the third journey.

Be on a point of the changing wheel and Know there is no step up or down, they Are all coming and going forth from the Most Radiant One to the radiance of his, her Bright light.

Sparks and embers are Ready to ignite into flame
When the static trip is known as the Inner one. Alchemy is the transforming power Leading forward to the power transforming
All, and so from disciple to transformer,
A world of inner reality becomes the Reality of all worlds.

Globality is attained through the Details each point reveals as a step into and Out of the smallest faces still expressed
By the ego.
From then on and from on then,
Facing the mirror is finding the truth.
When the seventh golden one, walking on
The ground of the planet, beside you, is Recognized, the mirror is discovered and the Inner world explored.
Do not overlook the mirror, you would miss
The world, this is part of the universal law
I, El Morya, remind you now:

FAITH

FORGIVENESS

PRAISE

GRACE

LEADERSHIP

ASPIRATION TO HIGHER POTENTIAL

SELF-LOVE

SYMPATHY

HONESTY

PATIENCE

In the glory that you can attain mastery in your incarnation.

Universal laws are the stairs to
The Law, they bring you to the apex of the Triangle, from there, as you become its sides,
Inside and out, within and Space out, the seventh golden ones
Diffusing the radiance of him, her, the Most Radiant One in which you live like a Magnet of light, a center of love, the Twelve rays of the almighty are the Notes and the coloring layers of your Inner emptiness, ready to glow and Give, share and touch as a

Multiple laser, all the interiorities you
Know and know not on the physical plane,
Including them in the radiant
Your Open tabernacle.
The heart is wide and
The crown is globality up to the twelve you
Embrace the colorful qualities of the Most Radiant One, making them
Available for humanity to integrate.
From oneness to its multiplicity,
You synthesize and open up the Particular into the global making
Your heart join the higher with the Smaller, giving birth to Innovative ways towards the Twenty-first century. This is the externalization
Of the Celestial Hierarchy, this is the Descent of the seventh golden ones on Earth for the glory and the radiant Manifestation of the Most Radiant One in all humanity the areas of Concern in the world.

On the stairs of the universal laws
The cross to bear is of both equal parts
Because from Christ to sixth level,
Vertical and horizontal are equal

Work.

Here the sign of the cross begins downward,
Crossing the hand up, right and left,
To light up the energies and give them the Vertical push following the awareness of The snake along the yin, yang poles of The spine.

The seventh golden ones are the pillars, the Ducts and the energies of the Universal One Life flowing up to the crown in
The body of a human being.

All stairs go up and down at once, the Difference is yours to decide,
The direction toward the choice of the Seventh golden one is a double Meaning, they can go up and down on the Layers scale, only color is left for them to Lift up and down and the ways are all
Known as means to reach all.
On the subtle shades, on the Brightest tints, the rainbows are more than Usual, the vision of it awareness to Come. The firmness of the following steps to Come.

Down the armless moves of the Most Radiant One, her, light, his, love
Flowing radiance like a cascade down to
The golden shade of the Seventh ones, but down is not a point or a Place, it is within and out, it is in and Around for them to globalize the Unit they share.

Now experience, no more than a word, has Merged, expressing out and Formulating formlessness and timelessness into Creativity.

Co-creators and co-ordinators, the Seventh golden ones as globally empowered
Are both light and love and if you
Can improve yourselves at the mirror they Are, you will be able to go up the Stairs of the universal laws, on your Own and the capacities you will express in the Service to come.

The Plan is a map where each of you
Has a place and time to be different and Right for the pieces of it to be done and Settled in.

Like a note on its own,
Like a musical score, will each of You and all of them be the Beautiful symphony of the spheres be Played and heard from heaven to Earth.

Harmony, action and rhythm are the Triangle of the celestial sound to be Vocalized and spoken on all levels where
The bodies can express them.

This is the worldwide approach of the Externalization,

This is the universal start of a

New beginning bringing, down on earth,
The celestial voiceless speech of the Third part of the Teachings
Through experience of the Seventh golden ones to humanity and
For the Plan to be served.

On the snows and the lawns, on the Trees and over the seas, everywhere, from Nowhere, towards you all, the Golden balance of the seventh ones
Adjusts and adapts, the strongest energies
Through the radiance of the
Most Radiant One.

Repeating the words and defining the Nameless, inventing the terms and Enjoying their vibrations, is as difficult as Improving the process to be learned and Lived in the physical bodies of the Seventh golden ones.

The Celestial Hierarchy's Teachings are Always innovative and on the seal you
Can read, you will find the energies in Motion and the symbols leading one's Heart to its opening.

Do not miss them.

It is so easy to follow and so hard to Recognize.

Do not miss them.

Be the recognizers before being the Followers.

Better than following, try to accompany
The radiant energies your heart will Catch and drop one after another the Facets of the ego in order to reach and Serve the Plan with the Radiant wisdom of the
Seventh golden ones.

Snow is crystals on the mountainless
Slopes in the radiant country where Fire and ice melt.
No geographic place, countryless space only,
Inner space spreading its energies are
But the very reality of the sparks of Eternity to be found in the tiny crystal
Shade of the iced pastels blossoming in the Snow.
From light to it and from crystals to Light, the merging glory of mother Nature feeds the spirit and quiets the Mind.
Fire and ice are no longer different.

The first enlightens and the latter
Vaporizes as the soul in glory enters the Arrow way to the monad.
Meet the ice and burning fire to Open the heart and merge and Fuse in them as drops in the ocean.
You are each one and all of them and
The waves and tides of the Human movement in evolution.

Keep in motion for the service to be done,
Every attempt is action before the rhythm is Known, love turned it to harmony no
Matter the subject.
Move forward and Forget yourself to follow and help the Triangle of manifestation drawn into Action by the
Seventh golden ones.

Evolution is natural, it keeps going, through the Unconscious until awareness brings the Choice to be made, starting
Conscious initiation whose first step
Opens the path of spiritual
Guiding lines.
The rails, on the summits, the downslope and the Falls, are the spring board when the self makes its Leaps to the soul.
Know them and use it to heighten your Vibrations, initiations are fitting the help to the Seventh golden ones' work.
Tremendous are the energies,
Overflowing like pure floods,
Whirling vortexes,
Cascading colors and Vibrating qualities, while the Rays from one to twelve networking
Consciousness, give a start to beginnings.
Give a chance, within you, to the Seventh golden one to awaken,

The spark of Christ light in every heart is Guarantee of his, her birth in a long or Short term.

From now to the right moment it is up to you
To encourage and enhance the inner processes
On the levels where initiation can lift you up.

Be strong,

Be pure,

Be the ones to the seventh,

Be golden and from the Source of radiance

Adapt yourselves in no-selves in the Most Radiant One to be Expressed.

Be the seventh golden ones and

For that and all

Be blessed.

I have spoken.

In a cluster of stars
Blossoming out delicate fragrances,
The twelve colors of the rays are Twinkling down the Stairs to the open stage of this huge
Theater of humanity.
Seeds of sparks gently dropped on The crowns, glow their way down to
The red of the uplifted energy
Finding its way to the golden
Brightness over the opening seventh.
Blood has become the flow and flesh the temple,
One life is just happening at the right place for The seventh golden one to be Accessed.
Falling apart and left behind,
Letting go and shining fire are now
Synthesis in motion and the very part of each
Cell, no one is there to witness the change,
Action is completed and love enlightening.
Rhythm in its cycles has become Harmony while radiance, all over space,
Time, causes erasure of the effects.
The seventh golden one is born out of too
Many deaths that life itself, one, in its

Two parts, only recognizes now the Action of love in its very intimate depths.
Angels can sing and help and protect,
Angels can work and the devas too,
One life is all, in space, and timeless is the Only present continuing itself.

The pink atmosphere of Sananda's breath
Opens the fourth to the fifth, freeing the Reds petals of the radiant rose into the Unconditional love of its belonging.
The red has become rose because the Rose has become itself.

From this point in the fifth to the Monad and beyond, the universe's chant
Is the precious call, the initiates,
From now on, are not going to miss or Slow down.
Join the chant and in its melody,
Wed harmony with rhythm, then in
This unity move on and find the Spaceless dimension where from the seventh golden Ones work and serve.
The evolving perfume of the seventh dimension is
The meeting point where synthesis and all its Parts combine and specify the pieces of the Plan with the competencies of its world servers.
The seventh golden ones are in charge and Share the schedule, it is goalless for them,
It is not yet for them who, consciously or

Not, will help and achieve, through Creativity that has been planned for Needs.

A response coming from the plan can also
Be the answer to a need indirectly given
By a film or a play.

Everything is possible and can be changed
Too, because as known by the seventh
Golden ones, no one is indispensable and Everyone is able to get in touch and Receive the ideas and inspiration from
The cloud of knowable things passing over.
Humanitarian activities and small Organizations working on them are part of The Plan, when deviating their goals into a Commercial purpose or other personal
Will, then the energies of light and love move on to Somewhere else.

The Plan comes from the golden intention known
And enlightened in the radiance of the Most Radiant One and from it to The realization of the parts of the Plan, this Larger picture becomes the pieces of a World-wide and universal puzzle whose Landscape is known and envisioned by Wisdom and discernment, light and love
Through the human eyes of the
Seventh golden ones.

This is our work, this is the externalization of the Celestial Hierarchy in the divine

Purpose of the twenty-first century.
All over the planet, We are working, and We, with the seventh golden ones, in one Identification of consciousness, follow and Precede, on the ground of the planet, the Steps of Christ up to the fourth and beyond,
Because We love and light and know you
All as human beings and divine, as We Are, still and no more.

From heads to pearls,
From tears to drops,
From red to gold,
And gold to eternity
Hours, minutes, seconds, falling
One by one in timelessness, open
In space a way of light where Invisible footprints of the Seventh golden ones can be Seen, recognized and followed.

On the golden screen of your darkest nights
Do not project any thought, it would Erase the gold and imprint in your Mind your own nightmares.
Enter the screen, the golden glow is Endless and, being so, the path it Shines and advances depends on each of You, leading and nurturing you
From the color to its ray,
From its quality to its vibration.

The golden steps are the salvation of Each and on them depends the Evolution of humanity.
From group consciousness to the Masses, fly the inclusive golden
Steps of the seven on earth.
Being them you know all,
Being all, each of you can and Should recognize.
Patience is the threshold of timelessness.
Patience as a universal law
Spreads time and slows down
Emotions and impatience to the Right level for purification.
Be patient and envision the light on
The golden screen of your darkest nights.
From gold to golden the Path spreads and neither each nor Any can imagine gold.
The mind will do and the Heart will plunge, the Opening awareness is right here on the Golden screen of your darkest nights.
No need to search; the golden ones are Right here, where you are, because, for the Seventh, the only space is in motion light and Unconditional love the present into Eternity is the golden step, nowhere and Everywhere the footprint is multiple, as Many as the levels, on these layers you
Will find within yourself where you

Can have, at least, for a second, a glimpse of Eternity gilding your intuition to Perceive the reality.
The seventh golden ones walking as Full human and divine beings,
Among and beside you all as Long as each of you is able to See, know, help and be.

This is the reality in the golden radiance of the
Most Radiant One.

This is the reality of the golden ones in the Seventh coming to earth and working
The Plan.

This is the externalization of the Celestial
Hierarchy, with the collaboration of all
Disciples from the third to the sixth.

This is ours, yours and theirs
Responsibility for this part of the Plan
Already alive.

This is the will,
The power and the response.

This is it.

I have spoken.

The journey through empowerment is
The map of your own belonging,
From the source of the radiance to the Center of the Most Radiant One,
The travel has no distance and the Ways no end.
The path is with light,
The pavement of love and Before expressing them as one, because You are the path and
You are the love and
From this state of being to the clarity and Transparency of non-being, the difference
Is of light and love, givers, on the Proper triangle of the Law.

Harmony-Action-Rhythm -
The three motions part of the
Radiance,
Expressions, on the golden seventh, of the Most Radiant One by the Co-creators, the seventh golden ones.

Harmony-Action-Rhythm -
Precious notes of the chant,

Radiant triple poles of the rays,
Satin gold of the seventh to Sirius, next Step in the radiance of the
Most Radiant One.

When gold, turned on moon-glowing polarity
Becomes the silvery path into the Incandescence of the Most Radiant One, then the Seventh golden ones start the first step to the Central Spiritual point,
Sirius, standing out and Blending in, into the melted
Gold out to the silver.

Here silver is transparency, as well as the Tones of the light on a shimmering shell.
Most powerful conductor of energy in the Radiant metal where the yin
Mother of the world polarity makes Possible and available the scent of Light down the double-pointed arrow.
Gold and silver are the two points.
Now silver is the way down and up,
While gold was the way up and down.

Each fundamental step on the journey is
A reversing polarity through energies.
Sirius will be the silvery one.
If you, disciples, are aware that Nothing is meaningless coming from the Seventh golden ones, you will Notice than on the physical plane they Wear silver, metal, and never Gold, or on occasion for a particular Purpose.

This is because the word of the most Radiant One is a silver arrow
Coming from the speechless and Expressing the silence of the wordless.
This is pure creativity that none can Hear,
This is pure beauty that none can See,
This is pure wholeness whose vision none can Perceive.

From Shamballa to Sirius is our Next step, the seventh golden ones
Are again and again, as before as Always, changing and moving forth
From gold to silver,
From Shamballa to Sirius,
From him to her, the Most Radiant One, because in His, her radiance we have Our being and non-being like a Balance on the double-colored
Thread, gold and silver,
Yang and Yin polarities to be Expressed and experienced on earth.
The central spiritual sun needs the Silvery mother's pearl to roll down its

Power to expression on earth.

The most Radiant One put the whole World in her hands because of the yin
Energies needed to give birth.

The alchemical expressions of gold and silver
Polarities are to be integrated by the Seventh golden ones up to the next
Showers of energies given on earth.

Transformation will go on, so will Transmutation, now is too soon in This form to Sirius, but, as we, actually Have improvement and experience by the Seventh golden ones on earth, transforming
And transmitting, we will prepare and Activate the Law to its next level when the Eight silver ones will come down to Earth. This is for the end of the next Century.

They will experience the same processes in Different ways as did our Sister LC, the Avatar of the seventh golden ones on Earth.

The next avatar is already born, in France, it is a boy, the silvery polarity,
Yin and feminine had a male physical body as
The golden polarity, yang, needed a
Female physical body for expression.

I, El Morya, as the Manu of the Seventh golden ones, have not yet finished
This coming age through physical

Expression.

Working with our Sister LC was Very easy for us, as much as it was Uneasy for her. Not to complain at all
Has always been a formula on her side
Because of the extreme discipline and Being the avatar of the Seventh golden ones, on earth, she will Now bring you, disciples from the Third to the sixth, all the facilities
Her work with us has brought to the Path.

Under the circumstances at that time,
This work has been missed by your Brother Krishnamurti. And so, the Plan was delayed.

From now and on, I, El Morya, with All my ascended Brothers and Sisters,
Demand for all the disciples, consciously
Working with us, to help our work by Listening to the means our Sister LC
Among you is going to give and Share.

This part of the Plan is crucial and the Realm of the most Radiant One on Earth depends on it.

My Brother Kut-Humi already gave another Piece of the Plan in the United States for the Next step of a global comprehension of Religions, with an architecture so powerfully

Meaningful than the energies will be Unify and resolve many of actual Difficulties.

This is very important, every one of you, each
One in the body of humanity, are
A link, to become a conscious link is an Urge.

Your work, on and from all levels of Consciousness is important. No one is more or Less, you all are important in all your Specificities.

Please understand and Work together, on the physical plane, like
We do in the Celestial Hierarchy.
This collaboration is the best and essential
Step in initiation.

Forget yourself and so do not forget the Service.

Do not avoid initiation.

No need to put the ego aside, it is the best Way to let it come back.

Work through individual initiation toward Group consciousness.

Be aware, be conscious, be humble and Work together, if you want to achieve
Mastery in this incarnation, you can.

If you are already masters from the Third to the sixth, you can reach the Seventh, but for all of you, Initiation is the Only way to the paths you are on.

Do not miss a step.
Enlightenment and ascension can happen,
Any time, but we do not know anybody
Achieving one or the other as a given
Gift of a privilege.
This in only an illusion of the mind.
You should believe us.
We know.
We did.
We made it, both.
But Initiation was the means.
No matter who you are,
No matter what you do,
Know who you are,
Do what you do, this is the right
Place and the right moment will come.

On the bare branches of the winter trees,
Ice and frost gather in their mirror the Lighter shades of the rainbows
Glittering under the radiance of the
Most Radiant One.

Each tiny sparkle of ice is a
Color sending to you nature in Its transformations as it flows down the Ground of earth for your steps to join Spring.

In every shape in all forms, each color and
All the symbols are signs to be seen and Friends to be loved.

Harmony is the cape of the Mother of the world,
From yin to yang begins the action and the Folds of the rhythm, sliding on Transparency, touch your heart
In the Right vibration.

When the cape has been and when yin has Known yang as a part of itself to be Loved and expressed, then light on the Edge of each fold travels from heaven to the Bottom of earth.

In the apex of the vision nothing remains but

The Opening of the heart, like a huge frameless
Door where the radiance can enter.
Welcoming on earth the father and mother,
Into their yin-yang aspects they experience and Transmit, this is, among all the parts of the Plan, the foundation built by the
Seventh golden ones.

The creation, birth and blossoming qualities of the Divine, as well as gestation and receptivity,
Are the energies in their yin polarity the Central Spiritual Sun has sown for the Souls harvest to the monads.

The in and out process is the breathing of
The most Radiant One over all the Cycles of his, her timeless patience.
Infinity and eternity are part of the Process depending on the mastery in its Very degrees.

When sunshine caresses the velvet of
A baby's skin, the promise is there,
Right in the divine smile
Thanking the protecting angels around
Him.

Boy or girl is then no more than a
Polarity the adult will have to Discover transcending gender.
The energies have to be integrated,
Back to the initial, original belonging
Where he, her are both unified
With the Mother of the world from the

Most Radiant One,
The ego left behind, with the soul to the Monad, every human being is able to Experience the alchemical marriage
Within his, her own being returning to
The very core of all, where we all
Come and to which we will journey back.
On the challenging path to the Yin and the Yang, Jung, as an initiate,
Found the unconscious polarities for Woman and man,
The animus and the anima to Integrate through the new word he gave Individuation.

He was right.

Before this, integration in each person is not Complete in her, him, and contacting the Soul's energies depends on this travel from
The bottom of the non-self to the top of the self.
Then and only then can the work begin, I Am talking about the spiritual journeys
Mentioned here.

Jung's innovative works are the process of Initiation going down and up and all the Other approaches. Avoiding this first journey
Is not acceptable in the long or short run.
Jung's proposition is a very spiritual one,
It was needed and is useful in the Traditional therapies as it is on the Spiritual path of initiation.

From the plant green to the desert and
From desert to plant green, cycles come and go
As you all go up and down, this is for Everybody to experience and for Nature to be the cradle along the seasons of Its own.

From density to subtlety, be the Shelves and be the layers of the shelves.
The scale is endless, as we, ascended
Masters are on the shelf to higher levels...
Shelf, layer, high and down,
Down and up, the cycles of Initiation
Push, through all the disciples,
Humanity to itself and the source is Found in each of you all.

Through the eyes of the masters,
Christ's consciousness sparkles its Flame and embraces your heart.
Unveil the spark and find the Flame.

Initiation is the door and the key, the Threshold is yourself and the Achievement, mastery, in all its degrees.
Each beginning is another door whose Key is to be found. First of all, the Door has to be found and the key seen.
Behind every door, we are the gate
Widening the path for you to go forth.

The seventh golden ones are the gate and the Path behind and still ahead, being the Motion of the One Life they know and Comprehend and, from us to them, oneness is Available for you to be and understand.

Christ is on earth in irradiating energies to Be experienced by those who start the Second journey and go on to the third.
The seventh golden ones, externalization of the Hierarchy, are the... testimony of which
You all, disciples, are witnesses.
Be aware. Be touched. Be blessed.
Through the doors of initiation,
Pass the gate and join us;
Love is the key, light is the means for Harmony to be a rhythmic action.

Sweet breeze and windy whispers will Whirl around and around until the Door of the heart opens and widens.
The valleys of evolution are lying forward for
You all and each to step in and cross.
On the ocean waves, within the clear crystal Blue sea of your cycling tides, again and Always, again and ever the source will be
There under and over the depths.
From awareness to consciousness the Process of Initiation goes on, in spite of the Pauses, falls and turns.

On the golden rails of the higher initiation,
Are found the reflections of divine will,

Christ consciousness, footprints of the Seventh golden ones and the vibrations of the Monad.

This is the time to recognize them all, right
Now, on earth, in this very incarnation,
Because if you are now reading this book it Means that Christ consciousness is Crossing your life and its way takes you
To the Plan and to us.

It is time to see and hear

It is time to serve consciously, it is Time to know where you are,
Who you are and how to be mobile
Enough to follow the rules of the Universal laws up to the law of Divine purpose.

Intention, will, power, light, love,
Service, One Life are the knowledge toward Impermanence on the physical plane where you
Will handle the Moving Flow.

The seventh golden ones experiencing
Impermanence on the physical plane in Total freedom of all their vehicles will Show the way and comprehend the Level of your different own experience
The seventh golden ones are the Flow lights of your nights and the Impacts on your awareness.

Initiation is the window, the look and
The landscape on and of your own

Journey.

Name it from the first to the third

Do not be shy or scared and from this

Very minute, find yourself a place on

The way of your search.

Do not search any more, find.

From now on you are in the footprints of

Your older brothers and sisters.

Understand the signs,

Read the symbols,

Open up to the other dimensions of your

Inner being and merge quietly in the Open heart you recognize.

It is your move, it is your decision, never,

Ever the open heart will ask to follow.

There is nothing there to be followed,

Only room is given to each to find its Own opportunity.

Do not miss it.

A lost opportunity never returns,

And the future is only in your

Eternal present.

Be brave and courageous,

No one will move on but you.

The crystal colors of the seven rays

Keep the secret of the five radiations to

Which they lead.

Seven and five are a cycle through twelve.

Seven as a start and end to the

New beginning of the five.

Five as the hierophant who, on his, her way
Cannot be stopped.

From seven to five the spiritual master
Closes a cycle to begin another.

Higher transformation begins in Surrender to divine law.

Seven and five are twelve as is the Hanged man in the Tarot.

Breaking through all behavior patterns is Now experienced, the feet are walking the Seventh and the head delivering the Fifth, teaching is integrated as a

One Life experience as the energies.

Twelve will start again a new

Cycle and action without doors will Find harmony through rhythm.

Here is the power of the seventh golden

Ones, through the journey of Empowerment they are knocking at the Door of Sirius initiation.

Ground is the higher plane, light is the Open space and love unconditional and Timeless.

Who is there?

Is there someone anymore in the

Radiance of the

Most Radiant One?

There is, because experiencing One Life on

The physical plane is part of the work of the Seventh golden ones, they are on Earth, surrounded by the radiance from

The inner opening of their widened hearts.
Golden crystal quartz,
Rutiles under light,
Jewels out of radiance, they Balance and equilibrate their Inner polarities in each human being,
Making available the energies needed
To work out the difficulties and Walk the next step.
Free will is respected,
Decision is always yours when the Seventh golden ones send the energy on
The powerful will the divine entitle them.
There is no message; it is just a push,
The right inch to move on, given as the Opportunity to meet the soul or the monad,
Depending on each person's own way.
Do not believe in the golden one, meet the Seventh and know they are in, it can be An intuition or a perception, move in,
Faith, the first universal law is there, in their Eyes, in their hearts, in their hands and legs,
You cannot miss it, It is there and the
In their higher vibrations they will let you know.

To the seventh golden ones, our Brothers and Sisters, is dedicated this book from the Golden space of this dimension in initiation.
To you all, disciples, to humanity, on
And for their next steps, Christic consciousness
Is being part of the energy you will find in

This writing, with the particular Vibrations of the first ray provided from Will and power, divine, and through My Ashram.

I, El Morya, am available from and for Shamballa consciousness and beyond,
Only through identification of consciousness.
All other communications under my name
May be from my Ashram through a Disciple but are not from direct contact
With me, I am sure you understand this.
That is why discernment and experience of Higher vibrations are needed to recognize
The note from any other.

This is the work of the externalization of the Hierarchy for the twenty-first century.
Everyone is part of it or will be at different Levels.

Only with the seventh golden ones
Can We vibrate in oneness through
Identification of consciousness.
So you better hurry to the seventh, or Attain mastery in this life, this will Open you to the doors of the subjective
Ashrams of my Brothers and Sisters now
Working on the different parts of the Plan.

Service is now the priority for all disciples
Available to it, all degrees, even the World servers who are not conscious about
The Plan, they are participating.

Because service is their priority, the Initiation should be yours.
It is your concern and under your Responsibility.

With the seventh golden ones coming
On for this new century, the third millennium,
You, disciples, will be able to Reach the energies they make available
For all and the parts of the Plan to be Assumed and accomplished.
Support them but do not form any group
On the physical plane, other than, perhaps A workshop, seminar or other specific work or Travels.

There is no more time for community to Be gathered or spiritual
Group practice to be explored.
This is the externalization of the Celestial Hierarchy, this is time for Individual responsibility to work for The good and best of all and humanity.
Do not work on people,
Work into consciousness to awaken.
Work on yourself and bring your Refined energies to the group consciousness
Which is subjective.
And go back to your work,
Usual business, whatever it is.
By the way, work where you are,
Doing what you do.

Being part of the group consciousness
You will spread out and irradiate the Right energies to be used at the right Moment.

Keep in touch, from time to time,
Inform and work together; your Connections are spiritual before Becoming physical contact, and the Later will happen because of the first one.
This is also part of the third journey
Through empowerment.

This is the third level through higher
Initiation, mastery, vibrations.
It is the third level of mastery toward the Expression, on earth, of the Seventh golden ones.

In radiance,
From its light and colors, into and out of synthesis,
They are, as our Sisters and Brothers,
The new beginning of a new age; as Human and divine beings, they are
The golden steps of humanity,
In humanity, among the world and the Human affairs of the societies all over the Planet.

Christ consciousness is to be recognized as Part of humanity, it does not belong to Any religion, it belongs to humanity.
Working with my Brother Sananda,
Known as Jesus, on this awakening, We

Both urge you to reach the fourth
Level of Initiation that makes it
Available for one to all.
This is an accurate and useful way to Work and serve; it is part of the Plan, on the Individual level, for group consciousness.
It is also the only way to the Seventh golden ones and for them to be Part of the externalization of the Hierarchy.

This book is but an introduction to the Teachings in its third part.
The Hierarchical Teachings through the Ascended Masters.
We are all working, of course, but in this Part of the Teachings, are mainly involved
With me, El Morya, my Brothers
Jesus Sananda, Saint Germain,
Sanat Kumara, Serapis Bey and some disciples.
And for the particular and delicate
Initiation between the third and forth degrees,
Our brother E. Krishnamacharya.

This teaching concerns the Externalization of the Hierarchy and
The seventh golden ones.
If I repeat myself, you will understand
It is for several reasons, one is the Rhythm of the energetic writing;
As in French, it is a new formless and Intuitive writing at the same time,

It is almost untranslatable from French to English, and will be from English to French.

More will follow on this subject and some Others.

Now is time for you to integrate these Energies given here and

Find your way through the Unavoidable initiations you will have To improve.

I, El Morya, did speak as I have Already spoken.

You will recognize the note and the Vibrations,

Meant for a new purpose,

The only difference is the innovation,

As always, like any communication from the Celestial Hierarchy.

Once more,

In oneness and in the

Radiance of the

Most Radiant One,

I, El Morya, with my Brothers and Sisters, the

Seventh golden ones,

In wholeness and on the paths of Initiation,

I remain, as they do on earth,

Your Instructor and your Brother

In the one divine Law of Harmony, Action and Rhythm.

Being with you in motion,
In light and love,
I, El Morya, am and remain
Your Brother and co-creator.
